Abacus successfully completes Institutional Entitlement Offer

Abacus Property Group (“Abacus”) (ASX: ABP) is pleased to announce the successful completion of the institutional component (“Institutional Entitlement Offer”) of its fully underwritten¹ 1 for 4.8 accelerated non-renounceable pro rata entitlement offer (“Entitlement Offer”) that was announced on Tuesday, 8 December 2020.

Institutional Entitlement Offer

The Institutional Entitlement Offer raised approximately $356 million at the offer price of $2.90 per Abacus security (“Issue Price”) and was well supported by institutional securityholders with take-up of approximately 97% by eligible institutional securityholders, including Abacus’ largest securityholder, Calculator Australia Pty Ltd as trustee for the Calculator Australia Trust².

Strong demand was received from Abacus’ existing institutional securityholders and new institutional investors for the institutional shortfall, comprising entitlements of existing eligible institutional securityholders that were not taken up under the Institutional Entitlement Offer and the entitlements of ineligible securityholders.

Abacus’ Managing Director, Seven Sewell, said: “We are very pleased with the investor support received for the Institutional Entitlement Offer. Abacus expects to extend its strong track record of long term value enhancing investments in the key sectors of Office and Self Storage, and we consider the positive outcome of the Institutional Entitlement Offer as a strong endorsement of this strategy.”

The approximately 123 million new securities subscribed for under the Institutional Entitlement Offer (“New Securities”) are expected to be allotted on Monday, 21 December 2020 and will commence trading on a normal settlement basis on the ASX on Tuesday, 22 December 2020.

New Securities issued under the Institutional Entitlement Offer will rank equally with existing Abacus securities, including entitlement to Abacus’ interim distribution for the period ending 31 December which is expected to be 8.5 cents per security.
