Sero Institute Corrections

- Through its corrections group, Sero Institute delivers foundation skills, business and hospitality training inside 5 of Queensland's 11 Correctional facilities
- The training assists in the preparation for release of inmates by providing basic job ready skills and nationally accredited qualifications
- Research has proved that the provision of training to incarcerated persons reduces recidivism rates

Infection Control Training Skill Set was released jointly by the Federal and State Governments during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020. iCollege has begun the rollout of this training providing participants with the tools and knowledge required to undertake their duties in a safe manner.

● The Pharmacy Guild of Australia

- Partnership with the Guild to make infection control training available to their 5,800 community pharmacy members
- Customisation of Infection Control training to include pharmacy specific procedures
- Renewed interest in infection control with many states grappling with further COVID-19 outbreaks
- With pharmacies providing essential services infection control remains at the forefront of delivering services in the safest possible manner

● Aegis Aged Care:

- Sero institute was chosen as the training partner to deliver Infection Control training to all 3,300 staff across 27 quality care facilities
- Significant resources are in place to provide all staff with a baseline understanding of infection control practices
- Both Sero and Aegis have an ongoing commitment to ensuring staff fully understand the risks associated with infection while providing care for one of the most at risk sectors of the population

JobTrainer

The Australian Government is partnering with state and territory governments to establish a new $1 billion Job Trainer Fund.

- Additional 340,700 training places
- Free or low fee courses
- Targeted at school leavers and job seekers
- Designed to develop a “job ready” workforce
- Administered through state funding contracts

International Student Market

Global international student enrolments

Source : UNESCO Institute for statistics

- ✓ Historically, the International student education sector has proven to be incredibly robust, rebounding extremely well post significant occurrences including 9/11, SARS and the Global Financial Crises (GFC)
- ✓ Australia is currently ranked as the third most popular education destination for international students behind the USA and UK. Given Australia's success in containing the pandemic and the relative safety, it is reasonable to expect an increase in international students preferring Australia as their education destination of choice over other countries
- ✓ The COVID-19 vaccine rollout will likely have a significant impact on the international education sector. This is expected to be a driver for a planned and safe relaxation of Australia's borders

Future Outlook

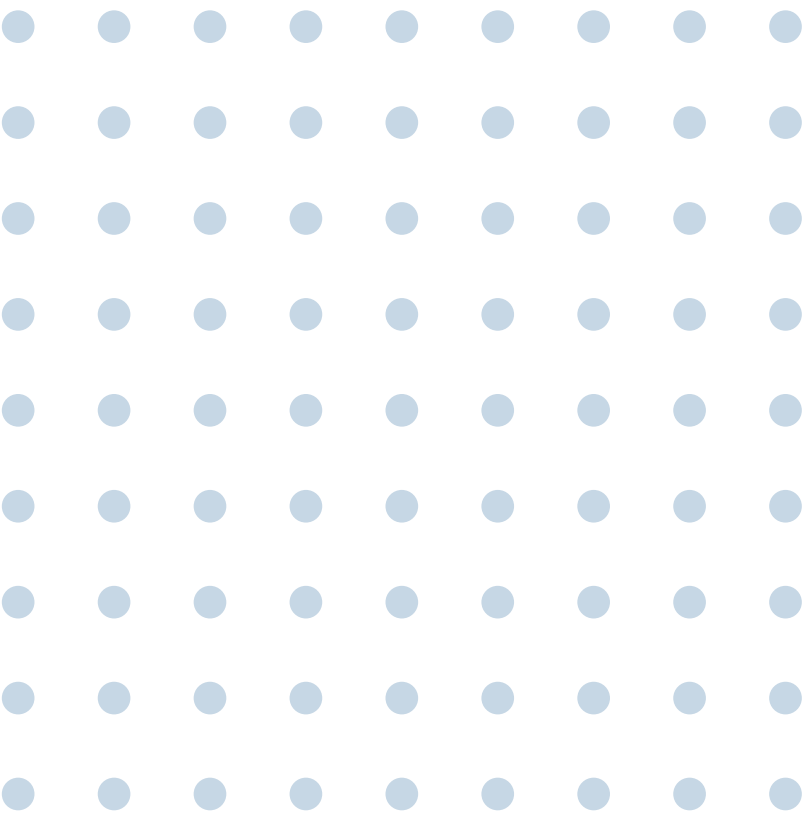

- Continued delivery of strong revenues and record EBITDA FY2021
- Increase in operating margin as fixed costs remain relatively stable
- Ongoing growth of new enrolments in HIGH DEMAND SKILL SHORTAGE industries
- Expansion of geographical footprint into new and lucrative training markets – current focus on Victoria and New South Wales
- Delivery and execution of accretive acquisition strategy aligned to growth drivers
