

CHALLENGER APPOINTS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Challenger Limited (ASX: CGF) today announced the appointment of Ms Rachel Grimes as Chief Financial Officer of Challenger Limited, effective 3 May 2021.

Ms Grimes has 30 years of commercial experience across financial services and the accounting profession in Australia and internationally.

She is currently General Manager, Finance, Westpac Banking Corporation and has held a number of senior finance roles across the Westpac Group. She has substantial experience in wealth management and the life insurance sector, including CFO and senior M&A roles within the Westpac Group and leading product and sales for Westpac Life Insurance. Ms Grimes has a proven track record of leadership and execution of major projects including technology, regulatory and change programs.

Ms Grimes was the President of the International Federation of Accountants 2016 to 2018 and is a Director on The Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board.

Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer Richard Howes said: “We are excited to welcome Rachel to the Challenger team.

“Rachel brings an outstanding track record as a leader in her field with significant experience as a technical and commercial finance executive. Her in-depth knowledge across wealth management, life insurance and banking, as well as experience in financial controls, governance and transformation programs will support our continued focus on strategic growth initiatives, including the integration of the MyLife MyFinance bank.”

Ms Grimes replaces Mr Andrew Tobin, who is stepping down after 13 years at Challenger.

“Andrew has been a key member of our executive team for nine years. His deep financial capability and steadfast leadership presence have helped Challenger navigate significant change in our business and operating environment,” Mr Howes said.

“On behalf of the Board and the Challenger team I thank Andrew for his commitment and diligence over many years and we wish him all the best for the future.”

This release has been authorised by Challenger’s Continuous Disclosure Committee.
