Dispute finance

Single-case

Capital for legal fees or expenses to support a single case or arbitration. Includes working capital, debt satisfaction and other items

Portfolio

Capital for legal fees to support multiple cases or arbitrations of a law firm or company

Multi-party

Finance for an action against a defendant by group (or its representative/s) with the same or similar claims (non US)

Working capital

Up-front finance for law firms and corporates (with optional claims management services) with a limited recourse return from the prosecution of pre-identified legal claims

Enforcement

Finance and management to enforce a client's existing legal rights

Claims monetisation

Purchase of (full/partial) legal rights from counterparty, monetising the legal asset (eg portion of favourable judgment/award while appeal pending), becoming owner of asset with rights to prosecute/recover

Future

Downside risk management

Indemnity cover for potential case costs or access to ATE insurance. Contingent, 'back-end loaded' finance

Defence-side funding

Funding the defendant (as opposed to claimant)

Key Relationships

- Fund investors
- Equity investors
- Professional advisers (law firms, insolvency practitioners)
- Industry experts (arbitrators, mediators, barristers market analysts, economists, etc)
- External vendors

Robust investment model

- Innovative investment and co-investment model
- Robust investment practices
- Disciplined investment approach
- Integral risk management
- Well-balanced and diversified portfolio
- Diversified sources of capital
- Strategy

ESG / Corporate Social Responsibility

- Access to justice for impecunious
- Public interest cases / compensation for victims of mass wrongs (eg environmental torts)
- Deterrent to potential wrongdoers
- ESG-screening criteria preventing investments with negative ESG footprint
- Light environmental footprint
- ESG reporting and accreditation
- Research to advance access to justice
- Diversity and inclusion
