

ASX Announcement

Monash IVF Group Limited (ASX: MVF)

20 January 2022

Temporary elective surgery suspension on IVF procedures lifted in Victoria

Monash IVF Group Limited (ASX: MVF, the “Company” or “Monash IVF”) today provides a further update on IVF procedures in Victoria following changes to non-urgent surgery settings announced on 12 January 2022.

On 12 January 2022, the Victorian Minister of Health made the Pandemic (Additional Industry Obligations) Order 2022 (No.3) (“Order”) under the Public Health and Wellbeing Act 2008 in the belief that the Order is reasonably necessary to protect public health throughout Victoria from the serious risk arising from the COVID-19 pandemic disease. The Order temporarily ceased certain IVF procedures in metropolitan Melbourne and major regional cities across Victoria from 12 January to 12 April 2022.

On 20 January 2022, the Victorian State Government announced (“Announcement”) IVF procedures will recommence following the changes announced to non-urgent surgery setting on 12 January 2022. The Announcement stated that some services will recommence on 20 January 2022, with the remainder recommencing from 11.59pm on Tuesday, 25 January 2022. As a result, the Company’s Victorian IVF business will recommence all services by 26 January 2022 noting the Company’s operations outside of Victoria remains un-impeded and services are continuing to be provided.

Monash IVF is pleased IVF procedures will recommence and the Company is focussed on informing patients of their options to recommence their treatment and ensure sufficient workforce and resources are in-place to meet demand. The Company also remains focussed on maintaining appropriate measures and protocols in-place to protect the health and safety of the Company’s patients, employees and specialists.

Approved by the Chairman and Managing Director.

Michael Knaap
Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director, Monash IVF Group
+61 3 9452 8132

Malik Jainudeen
Chief Financial Officer and Company
Secretary, Monash IVF Group
+61 3 9452 8132