ACTIVITIES REPORT AND APPENDIX 4C – QUARTERLY CASH FLOW REPORT DECEMBER 2021

Adelaide, Australia, Friday 28 January 2022: Axiom Properties Limited (ASX:AXI) lodges the attached Appendix 4C Quarterly report for entities admitted on the basis of commitments for the quarter ended 31 December 2021.

The Company's cash reserves for the December quarter increased by $5.320 million and the Company held cash reserves of $12.732 million as at 31 December 2021.

Details of the Company's business activities for the quarter are as follows:

- o Development costs spent were for the construction of the South Australian Emergency Services State Command Centre and multi-deck carpark, being $9.814 million. Charter Hall as the landowner funded the development costs. As announced on 3 December 2021, the Company achieved Practical Completion on its Emergency Services State Control Centre and received the Final Development Fee Payable from Charter Hall of $15.906 million. The Final Development Fee received included costs which were yet to be paid to the builder and the State Government of circa $5.555 million. As at time of this announcement, circa $1.848 million of these costs remain outstanding and will be paid in accordance with contractual obligations and upon certification by the independent certifier, likely to occur in the March 2022 quarter.
- o Inventory costs spent were for the construction of the Company's large format retail centre, the Butler Central Homemaker Centre, being $8.329 million and its Mt Barker residential land sub-division in South Australia, Glenlea Estate, being $0.396 million. As announced on 13 December, the Company settled the sale of its Butler Central Homemaker Centre and received $16.120 million being for the land plus reimbursement of costs spent to date of settlement. Under the terms of the agreement, the Purchaser (The Lester Group) will continue to fund all development costs, including $2.9m for development costs for the November certified claim which was received in the quarter.

The balance of net operating cash flows for the December quarter included cash out flows of employee, office overhead and interest costs as disclosed in item 1 in the below 4C, which are representative of regular quarterly operating costs.

Notes

1. This quarterly cash flow report and the accompanying activity report provide a basis for informing the market about the entity's activities for the past quarter, how they have been financed and the effect this has had on its cash position. An entity that wishes to disclose additional information over and above the minimum required under the Listing Rules is encouraged to do so.
2. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the definitions in, and provisions of, AASB 107: Statement of Cash Flows apply to this report. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with other accounting standards agreed by ASX pursuant to Listing Rule 19.11A, the corresponding equivalent standard applies to this report.
3. Dividends received may be classified either as cash flows from operating activities or cash flows from investing activities, depending on the accounting policy of the entity.
4. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the board". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a committee of your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the [name of board committee – eg Audit and Risk Committee]". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a disclosure committee, you can insert here: "By the Disclosure Committee".
5. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors and you wish to hold yourself out as complying with recommendation 4.2 of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, the board should have received a declaration from its CEO and CFO that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, that this report complies with the appropriate accounting standards and gives a true and fair view of the cash flows of the entity, and that their opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.
