ASPERMONT SUBSIDIARY KONDININ GROUP AWARDED A$2.3M GOVERNMENT GRANT

Kondinin Group is Aspermont's agricultural media brand division and is the leading information distributor to Australia's farming community.

The $2.3M Federal Drought Resilience Innovation Grant was awarded by The Hon David Littleproud, Minister for Agriculture and Northern Australia.

The grant will cover implementation of the Kondinin Group's Drought Resilience Program for Agriculture Research which will provide Australia's farmers with comprehensive drought related information and guidance on strategies and technologies available for drought mitigation.

Ben White, Kondinin Group General Manager, said: "Kondinin Group has provided independent and reliable information to Australian farmers for nearly 60 years and this Government grant acknowledges our important role in producing practical information for farmers to improve drought preparedness."

Alex Kent, Aspermont Managing Director, added: "This $2.3M grant confirms that the Australian Federal Government recognises and supports Kondinin as brand leader in the Australian agricultural sectors."

"Our voice is heard, and our influence is recognised in agriculture as well as in the global mining and energy sectors."

"We are keen to work closely with Governments in all regions to help deliver community solutions for challenging issues such as drought as we are doing in other areas such as climate change"

This announcement has been authorised by the Board of Directors.
