Indiana Resources Limited (ASX: IDA) ('Indiana' or the 'Company') is pleased to announce that a Native Title Mining Agreement (NTMA) has been successfully negotiated with the Gawler Ranges Aboriginal Corporation RNTBC and subsequently registered by the Department for Energy and Mining, South Australia.

The NTMA signed with the Gawler Ranges People represented by the Gawler Ranges Aboriginal Corporation RNTBC, covers 12 Exploration Licences located in the southern portion of the Company's Gawler Craton portfolio which hosts the prospective Archaean greenstones of the Harris Greenstone Domain.

This southern area (see green highlighted area in Figure 1 below) hosts several established targets including Double Dutch, Earea Dam, Moolkra, Yerda and Renton. A review is currently underway to refine and prioritise these targets ahead of the commencement of exploration following the receipt of all necessary approvals.

Company Comment

Indiana's Technical Director Felicity Repacholi-Muir said:

"We would like to thank the Gawler Ranges Aboriginal Corporation RNTBC for their support in reaching this significant milestone for Indiana. This NTMA is a major step towards unlocking the southern corridor of our Gawler Craton portfolio, and we look forward to working with the Gawler Ranges People to advance our plans. With several encouraging targets already identified across this highly prospective ground we are eager to commence work on the ground as quickly as possible."
