

AFG appoints new Chief Financial Officer

Australian Finance Group Ltd (ASX: AFG) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Luca Pietropiccolo as its Chief Financial Officer.

Mr Pietropiccolo joins AFG from Alinta Energy Limited, where he is currently General Manager Finance, Merchant Energy. A Chartered Accountant, Mr Pietropiccolo has more than 17 years' experience across a range of finance disciplines including accounting, M&A, strategy, capital management, and leading high-performance finance teams in high-growth public companies.

Mr Pietropiccolo has previously held senior finance roles at ASX-listed Wesfarmers Limited with significant experience across a diverse range of the Group's businesses. He holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Western Australia in Commercial Finance, Investment Finance and Accounting.

AFG Chief Executive Officer David Bailey said: "I am delighted to welcome Luca to AFG. He has a successful track record in financial leadership and will bring strong commercial experience to the role. He will be a key contributor to our executive and a talented leader for our Finance team."

"As an experienced finance professional, Luca's experience at top ASX listed companies will also help support AFG's growth trajectory," he said. "His strong financial and technical capabilities will make an important contribution to AFG as we continue to focus on executing our strategy and delivering long term, sustainable value creation for our shareholders."

Mr Pietropiccolo will join AFG on 31st October 2022.
