Proxy

A shareholder who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at the GM has a right to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of the shareholder. Shareholders can direct their proxy how to vote by following the instructions on the voting form and are encouraged to do so.

Undirected proxies

The Chairman intends to vote any undirected proxies given to him on the Special Resolution in favour of the resolution, and the shareholder will be taken to have expressly authorised the Chairman to exercise the proxy as he decides.

Resolution 1

Approval of Change of Company Name to Helia Group Limited

On 1 March 2021 Genworth Financial, Inc. (GFI) sold its entire holding of 214,316,838 fully paid ordinary shares in Genworth, which at that time comprised approximately 52% of the Company's shares on issue. On settlement of the sale on 3 March 2021, GFI ceased to be a substantial holder in Genworth and no longer owns any shares in the issued capital of the Company.

The Company used the Genworth Trademarks under a licence agreement with GFI whilst it was majority owned by GFI. Following separation from GFI, the Company is required to cease use of the Genworth trademarks.

As a result of the separation from GFI, the Company has reviewed its purpose, strategy, customer value proposition and has chosen the new name, Helia Group Limited. The new name, Helia Group Limited, will create a separate identity for the Company and better reflect its activities and strategy going forward.

The new name will be accompanied by a new brand identity and trademark.

In accordance with Section 157(1) of the Corporations Act, a company may change its name by Special Resolution. If this Special Resolution is passed, the Company will lodge the prescribed forms with ASIC requesting that ASIC alter the registration details of the Company to reflect the name change. The change of name will take effect from the day on which ASIC alters the details of the Company's registration.

If this resolution is passed, the Company's ASX listing code will change from "GMA" to "HLI". This change will be announced on the ASX's announcement platform. The Company's Constitution will also be attached to this announcement.

Availability of Constitution showing proposed Amendments

A marked copy of the Company's Constitution showing the proposed changes is available at investor.genworth.com.au and copies are also available for inspection at the Company's registered office: Level 26, 101 Miller Street, North Sydney NSW 2060.

Voting requirements

Pursuant to section 136(2) of the Corporations Act, Resolution 1 is required to be passed by a special resolution. A special resolution must be passed by at least 75% of the votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution.

What do the Directors recommend?

The Directors recommend that shareholders vote FOR Resolution 1. The Chairman intends to vote available proxies given to him FOR Resolution 1.
