AACo Announces Key Executive Appointment

ASX Announcement

1 November 2022

Australian Agricultural Company Limited (AACo)(ASX:AAC) has today announced the appointment of Glen Steedman as Chief Financial Officer (CFO). It is anticipated that Glen will join AACo in the first quarter of calendar 2023.

Having had years of experience as a Chief Financial Officer, Glen's most recent role is as Virgin General Manager, Airports, Property & Procurement. He has a strong finance and commercial track record across a range of industries including property, rail and aviation. He's held senior and executive positions at companies such as Lend Lease and Pacific National, both of which have diverse supply chains and varied stakeholder groups.

Among Glen's financial experience is four years as the Chief Financial Officer and another year as Chief Commercial Officer at Pacific National, as well as Vice President, Global Financial Reporting at Lend Lease Real Estate Investments.

AACo Managing Director and CEO David Harris said he was excited to welcome Glen to AACo's leadership team.

"Glen's commercial and supply chain experience along with his management and financial expertise will see him fit seamlessly into AACo," Mr Harris said.

"Glen will play a significant role in assisting the business to continue its focus on performance aligned to our business objectives, with particular emphasis on making AACo a simpler and more efficient business and delivering the full potential from our brands.

"I look forward to working closely with Glen as we continue delivering on our strategy and creating value for shareholders."

Glen holds a Bachelor of Business, Accounting and Finance from the University of Central Queensland. He's a Chartered Accountant and is a Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

This announcement is authorised for release by the AACo Chairman.
