Incident at Dugald River

Perenti wishes to advise that following an incident that occurred earlier this morning at the Dugald River underground mine in Queensland, two Barmenco team members are currently unaccounted for.

The site emergency response team has been activated and Barmenco is working with MMG and relevant authorities.

Whilst the situation is still evolving, the team are also focused on providing support to family members and colleagues.

We will update the market with relevant information as it comes to light.
