¹ “Corporate governance statement” is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must also lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The Appendix 4G serves a dual purpose. It acts as a key designed to assist readers to locate the governance disclosures made by a listed entity under Listing Rule 4.10.3 and under the ASX Corporate Governance Council’s recommendations. It also acts as a verification tool for listed entities to confirm that they have met the disclosure requirements of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

The Appendix 4G is not a substitute for, and is not to be confused with, the entity’s corporate governance statement. They serve different purposes and an entity must produce each of them separately.

² Tick whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where your corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

³ Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes “OR” at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the “OR” at the end of the selection.

See notes 4 and 5 below for further instructions on how to complete this form.

The Corporate Governance Statement discloses the extent to which the Company follows the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council in its publication Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th Edition) (ASX Recommendations). The Recommendations are not mandatory, however all Recommendations have been followed and are reported on in this Statement.

Step One was initially listed on ASX on 1 November 2021. The Company published a Corporate Governance Statement in its Prospectus dated 8 October 2021. This Corporate Governance Statement reports on the practices undertaken during the past reporting period and as at the date of this Statement.

The Company's corporate governance policies are available on the Company's website at <https://www.stepone.group/investor-centre/?page=corporate-governance>.

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

A listed entity should clearly delineate the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and regularly review their performance.

Board responsibilities and delegations

The Company's Board Charter was adopted by the Board in October 2021 and confirmed in June 2024. The Board Charter is located on the Step One Clothing website at <https://www.stepone.group/investor-centre/?page=corporate-governance>

The Board Charter provides a framework for the effective operation of the Board, setting out:

- the Board's role and responsibilities and size, composition and independence;
- the relationship and interaction between the Board and Management; and
- the authority delegated by the Board to Management and Board committees.

The Board's role and responsibilities, as set out in the Board Charter, include:

- represent and serve the interests of shareholders by overseeing and appraising the Company's strategies, policies and performance. This includes overseeing the financial and human resources the Company has in place to meet its objectives and reviewing management performance;
- protect and optimise Company performance and build sustainable value for shareholders in accordance with any duties and obligations imposed on the Board by law and the Company's Constitution and within a framework of prudent and effective controls that enable risk to be assessed and managed;
- set, review and monitor compliance with the Company's values and governance framework (including establishing and observing high ethical standards and demonstrating leadership); and
- ensure shareholders are kept informed of the Company's performance and major developments affecting its state of affairs.

STEP ONE™

The Board Charter provides that the Company Secretary is accountable to the Board through the Chair on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board including advising the Board and its committees on governance matters and monitoring that Board and Board committee policies and procedures are followed.

The Board Charter delegates responsibility for day-to-day management and administration of the Company to the CEO and Senior Executives. The CEO is responsible for providing effective leadership, direction and supervision of the Senior Executives to achieve the strategies, business plans and budgets adopted by the Board and ensuring compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. The Board has procedures in place to assess regularly the performance of the CEO and the Senior Executives.

Board committees

The Board has established two committees to assist it in discharging its functions:

- Audit and Risk Committee (ARC); and

Each Director has the right to seek, at the expense of the Company, any independent professional advice that they consider necessary to fulfil their responsibilities and to exercise independent judgment when making decisions, subject to the approval of the Chair which cannot be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Background checks before appointing directors and senior executives

Directors appointed prior to initial listing undertook appropriate background checks as to their character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history.

In future, prior to the appointment of any new directors, the Board, with assistance from the RNC, will undertake the same checks as to their character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history. In the case of a director candidate, prior to appointment, the candidate will be required to provide the Chair with details of other commitments and an indication of time involved, and to acknowledge that they will have adequate time to fulfill his or her responsibilities as a Non-Executive Director of Step One Clothing.

Step One Clothing has entered into written agreements with the CEO, Directors and Senior Executives setting out the terms, conditions and responsibilities of their appointment. In accordance with Listing Rule 3.16.4, Step One Clothing discloses, to the extent required, the key terms of all employment, service or consultancy agreements with the CEO and would do so with Directors or other related parties when required.

The RNC will review the performance of Directors before they stand for re-election and reports to the Board on this matter. Further to this, Step One Clothing will provide shareholders with all material information relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director at a General Meeting.

The Company will positively seek female applicants for any new and vacant positions (excluding director re-election) and will maintain a positive bias toward the recruitment of women until these objectives are met.

The RNC Charter requires that RNC must have at least three members, a majority of whom must be independent Directors and all of whom must be Non-Executive Directors. The Chair must be an independent Director.

The RNC's primary responsibilities with respect to nominations include:

- a) Assist the Board to develop and regularly review its board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills, expertise, experience and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.
- b) Review and recommend to the Board the size and composition of the Board, including review of Board succession plans and the succession of the Chairman, having regard to the Board skills matrix and the objective that the Board comprise directors with a broad range of skills, expertise and experience from a broad range of backgrounds, including gender.
- c) Review and recommend to the Board the criteria for nomination as a director and the membership of the Board more generally, including:
 - (1) making recommendations for the re-election of Directors, subject to the principle that a Committee member must not be involved in making recommendations to the Board in respect of themselves; and
 - (2) assisting the Board to identify qualified individuals for nomination to the Board, in accordance with the policy outlined in section 4 of the RNC Charter.
- d) Review succession plans for the CEO and other senior executives and identify and recommend to the Board candidates for the position of CEO and other senior executives where required, following background checks on these candidates being undertaken.

Composition of the Board and details of Directors

• Independence

The Board only considers a Director to be independent where they are free of any interest, position, or relationship that might influence, or might reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring independent judgment to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the Company as a whole rather than in the interests of an individual shareholder or other party.

Without limiting the Board's discretion, the Board has adopted the following guidelines to assist in considering the independence of Directors.

In general, a Director will not be considered to be 'independent' if they:

- are, or have been, employed in an executive capacity by the Group and there has not been a period of at least three years between ceasing such employment and serving on the Board;
- receive performance-based remuneration (including options or performance rights) from, or participates in an employee incentive scheme of, the Company (although options or performance rights held by directors vesting of which is linked to share price are not considered to fall within this category as they are not performance-based in the sense of depending on particular business performance, but instead simply align a holder's interests with those of shareholders, who benefit from a strong share price);
- are, or have been within the last three years, in a material business relationship (e.g. as a supplier, professional adviser, consultant or customer) with the Group, or is an officer of, or otherwise associated with, someone with such a relationship;
- are, represent, or have been within the last three years an officer or employee of, or professional adviser to, a substantial shareholder;
- have close personal ties with any person who falls within any of the categories described above; or
- have been a director of the Company for such a period that their independence from management and substantial shareholders may have been compromised.

The Board may determine that a Director is independent if the Board is of the view that the interest, position or relationship in question is not material and will not interfere with the Director's capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the Company as a whole rather than in the interests of an individual shareholder or other party.

The below table sets out the independent status of each director:

STEP ONE™

| Director | Independent & Executive Status | Appointment Date |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| David Gallop AM (Chair) | Independent Non-Executive Director | 6 October 2021 |
| Richard Dennis | Independent Non-Executive Director | 6 October 2021 |
| Catherine Thompson | Independent Non-Executive Director | 6 October 2021 |
| Michael Reddie | Non-Independent Executive Director | 6 October 2021 |
| Gregory Taylor | Non-Independent Executive Director | 6 January 2017 |

For details of the current Directors, their qualifications, skills and experience refer to the “Directors’ Report”, contained within the Company’s 2024 Annual Report.

- Board skills matrix

Under the Company’s Constitution, the Board must comprise of at least three Directors and a maximum of eight Directors. The Board regularly reviews the composition of the Board, considering the number and skill mix of the Directors.

The Board recognises that skills such as leadership and previous experience as a chief executive, chair or board member have traditionally been prerequisites to appointment as a director. The Board has developed a Board skills matrix which sets out the mix of skills, experience and other qualities which the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.

| Competencies – Skills and Experience |

| Industry <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clothing Manufacture • International eCommerce • Retail |

Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk

A listed entity should establish a sound risk management framework and periodically review the effectiveness of that framework.

Risk management

In its function as a risk committee, the ARC assists the Board in fulfilling its corporate governance responsibilities with regard to providing oversight and ensuring the soundness of Step One Clothing's risk management framework and internal control systems.

The ARC's primary responsibilities with respect to risk management and internal control include:

- a) Oversee and advise the Board on high-level risk related matters, including risk tolerance in determining strategy, as well as management of key financial and non-financial risks, including new and emerging risks.
- b) Review and make recommendations to the Board in relation to the risk appetite within which the Board expects management to operate, and whether any changes should be made.
- c) Review the Company's risk management framework at least annually and make a recommendation to the Board about whether it continues to be sound and whether the Company is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the Board;
- d) Oversee management's implementation of the risk management framework, including that management has appropriate processes for identifying, assessing and responding to risks and that those processes are operating effectively.
- e) Review the trends in the Company's risk profile and report to the Board on key risks.
- f) Review and make recommendations to the Board in relation to any risk disclosures in the Company's periodic reporting documents.
- g) Consider whether the Company has any material exposure to environmental or social risks, and how it manages any risks identified.
- h) Evaluating the structure and adequacy of the Group's business continuity plans.

The Board through the ARC, has adopted a risk appetite statement and a risk management framework. This framework highlights the risks relevant to the Company's operations and Step One Clothing's commitment to designing and implementing systems and methods appropriate to minimize and control its risks.

STEP ONE™

The ARC in June 2024 undertook a review of its risk management framework to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound and that the Company is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the Board and with its legal obligations, including assisting the CEO and CFO to provide declarations required under section 295A of the Corporations Act.

Internal audit

Given the size and scale of Step One Clothing's current operations, Step One Clothing has not established an internal audit function. Responsibility for the effectiveness of Step One Clothing's risk management and internal control processes rests with Management, with the ARC having oversight of these processes. The ARC relies on ongoing reporting and discussion of the management of material business risks to evaluate and continually improve the effectiveness of Step One Clothing's risk management and internal control processes, and reports to and makes recommendations to the Board in relation thereto. As Step One Clothing's business operations continue to develop, the ARC may consider establishing an independent internal audit function.

Economic, environmental and social risks

As set out above, Step One Clothing has a risk management framework and the Company's Board Charter requires the Company to monitor any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks. The Company will disclose this information in its Annual Report and on the ASX website as part of its continuous disclosure obligations. The risk management processes in place require regular review of the Step One Clothing's existing risks and the identification of new and emerging risks facing the Company, including financial and non-financial matters.
