This announcement is authorised by the Board of Acusensus Limited.

About Acusensus

Acusensus is a technology company that was founded in 2018 with a mission to design and develop artificial intelligence enabled road safety solutions. Collaborating with governments and commercial stakeholders to tackle distracted driving globally is Acusensus' first priority.

Acusensus has pioneered intelligent solutions that provide anywhere, anytime digital evidence that can be used in conjunction with law enforcement to drive behavioural change and improve road safety. Acusensus technology is used to detect and provide prosecutable evidence of distracted driving (mobile phone use), seatbelt compliance, speeding, railway crossing compliance and the monitoring of vehicles of interest.

Acusensus listed on the Australian Securities Exchange in January 2023. Acusensus is headquartered in Melbourne, Australia, with offices also in Sydney, Brisbane, London (UK) and Las Vegas (United States).

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT 2024

This Corporate Governance Statement sets out the Company's current compliance with the fourth edition of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (ASX Principles and Recommendations). The ASX Principles and Recommendations are not mandatory.

The Board of the Company currently has in place the corporate governance policies and charters that are referred to in this Corporate Governance Statement on a dedicated Corporate Governance information section on the Company's website at <https://investors.acusensus.com/corp-gov/>.

This Corporate Governance Statement, together with ASX Appendix 4G, which summarises Acusensus' compliance with the ASX Principles and Recommendations, has been lodged with the ASX and is available at <https://investors.acusensus.com/corp-gov/>.

The information provided in this Corporate Governance Statement is current as at 27 August 2024 and has been approved by the Board.

ASX Principles and Recommendations		Explanation
1	Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1	Companies should have and disclose a Board charter setting out: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management. 	The respective roles and responsibilities of the Board and management are defined under the Board Charter. A copy of the Board Charter is available on the Company's website at https://investors.acusensus.com/corp-gov/. There is a clear delineation between the Board's responsibility for the Company's strategy and activities, and the day-to-day management of operations conferred upon the Managing Director and certain other officers of the Company.
1.2	Companies should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (c) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director. 	The process for selection, appointment, and re-appointment of directors is detailed in the Remuneration & Nominations Committee Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at https://investors.acusensus.com/corp-gov/. It is the role of the Remuneration & Nominations Committee to identify suitable candidates to complement the existing Board, to undertake appropriate checks on the candidate and, subject to the results of such checks, to make recommendations to the Board on their appointment. The Company provides all material information to enable shareholders to make an informed decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director in advance of any shareholder approvals required, including biographical details, relevant qualifications, a statement as to whether the Board supports the nomination of the director, the degree of independence of the director and details of any existing directorships held.
1.3	Companies should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company requires each director and senior executive to execute a written agreement setting out the terms of their appointment. Each director is given terms of appointment, which outline the director's duties, obligations, remuneration, expected time commitments and notification of the Company's policies. Similarly, senior executives including the Managing Director, Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary, have a formal job description and employment agreement describing their term of office, duties, rights and responsibilities and entitlements on termination. The Company will disclose the material terms of any employment, services or consultancy agreement it enters into with its Managing Director.

1.4	The company secretary should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	The Company Secretary is Olivia Byron, who reports directly to the Chair of the Board, Ravin Mirchandani. The role of the Company Secretary is outlined in the Board Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at https://investors.acusensus.com/corp-gov/ .
1.5	Companies should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through the Board or a committee of the Board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity; (ii) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and either (iii) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (iv) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act. 	The Company has implemented a Diversity & Inclusion Policy that seeks to align the Company's recruitment, remuneration and management systems with the commitment to develop a workplace culture that values and strives to achieve and maintain inclusivity and diversity in its workforce and on its Board. Furthermore, the Company is committed to a culture that embraces and fosters diversity and inclusion, which encompasses differences in backgrounds and ethnicity, qualifications and experiences, sexual orientation and identification, as well as differences in approaches and viewpoints. Please refer to the Company's Diversity & Inclusion Policy available via the Company's website at https://investors.acusensus.com/corp-gov/. As at the date of this Corporate Governance Statement, the Company continues to work towards setting its measurable objectives and has not yet developed measurable objectives to achieve gender diversity. The Company is committed to achieving a culture of inclusion and embracing different experiences, viewpoints and backgrounds of its people, and to increasing the proportion of women on the Company's Board and in senior executive positions. In this respect, details of the respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in senior executive and management positions and across the whole organisation are disclosed in the Company's 2024 Annual Report, as well as the proportion of employees who identify as having a disability.
1.6	Companies should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process. 	The Board endeavours to objectively evaluate its own performance and the performance of individual Directors on an annual basis, or earlier when Board vacancies or other relevant events occur that bear on Board composition. The Remuneration & Nominations Committee Charter sets out the responsibility for recognising and analysing any gaps in the skills and experience of the current Board. The Board undertook formal evaluation process during the reporting period in accordance with its process for such an evaluation. The Board also undertook a comprehensive review through the process searching for a new director in late 2023, which resulted in the appointment of Michael Giuffrida and the associated Committee changes that took place at this time. In addition, the Board continuously monitored its performance and processes at its monthly Board meeting by enabling the directors to address any concerns regarding the content, progress and conduct of each meeting. Please refer to the Company's Remuneration & Nominations Committee Charter available via the Company's website at https://investors.acusensus.com/corp-gov/.
1.7	Companies should:	Under the Board Charter, the Board is responsible for reviewing and evaluating the performance of the members of the executive leadership team.

ASX Principles and Recommendations		Explanation
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process. 	With the advice and assistance of the Remuneration & Nominations Committee, the Board undertook an evaluation of the members of its executive leadership team in accordance with its Charter, with performance assessed against qualitative and quantitative performance criteria.
2	Structure the board to be effective and add value
2.1	The board should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have a nomination committee which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively. 	The Company has a Remuneration & Nominations Committee, which oversees the selection and appointment practices of the Company. The Remuneration & Nominations Committee is governed by a Remuneration & Nominations Committee Charter, which is available on the Company's website at https://investors.acusensus.com/corp-gov/. During the reporting period, the Remunerations & Nominations Committee consisted of three members, Ms Klose, Mr Mirchandani and Mr Giuffrida, all of whom are non-executive directors with Ms Klose and Mr Giuffrida being independent. The Remunerations & Nominations Committee is chaired by Ms Klose, who is an independent non-executive director for ASX purposes. Details of the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the Committee are provided in the Company's Annual Report. The Remuneration & Nominations Committee will meet not less than twice per year and the number of times the Committee met and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings in the reporting period is disclosed in the Annual Report.
2.2	Companies should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	The Remuneration & Nominations Committee is responsible for regularly reviewing the size, composition and skills of the Board to ensure that the Board is able to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively and to identify any gaps in the skills or experience of the Board. The Company has prepared a Board skills matrix based on the relevant skills and experience of its directors, which is disclosed in the Annual Report.
2.3	Companies should disclose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, 	The Company assesses the independence of its directors against the requirements for independence set out in the Board Charter which reflect the independence criteria set out in the ASX Principles and Recommendations. Director independence is initially assessed upon each director's appointment and reviewed each year, or as required when a new personal interest or conflict of interest is disclosed. Directors are required to disclose all actual or potential conflicts of interest on an ongoing basis. Sue Klose and Michael Giuffrida are considered independent directors for ASX purposes.

	position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Alexander Jannink is not considered to be independent due to his executive role as Managing Director of the Company pursuant to the terms of his Executive Employment Agreement. Ravin Mirchandani is not considered independent due to his role as Chairman and Director of Ador Powertron Limited, a substantial shareholder of the Company, which holds approximately 16.27% of the issued share capital of the Company. The length of service of each director on the Board is as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ravin Mirchandani: 16 May 2018 – present; • Alexander Jannink: 26 March 2018 – present; • Sue Klose: 5 January 2023 – present; and • Michael Giuffrida: 9 October 2023 – present.
2.4	A majority of the board should be independent directors.	During the reporting period, the Company had four directors. Ms Klose and Mr Giuffrida are considered independent directors for ASX purposes, as described in Recommendation 2.3 above. The Board is mindful of the recommendation that a majority of the Board should be independent directors. The Board will continue to take this into consideration when considering the appointment of additional directors, but has determined that the Board's current size is appropriate given the Company's size and business circumstances. Thus, the Company is satisfied that the Board is comprised of an equal number of independent and non-independent directors and this is acceptable with respect to the business' circumstances at present. This decision will be reconsidered as appropriate.
2.5	The Chair of the board should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO.	The Chair of the Board is Ravin Mirchandani, who is not considered to be an independent director for ASX purposes, as described in Recommendation 2.3 above. The role of Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer is held by Alexander Jannink. The Board is mindful of the recommendation that the Chair of the Board should be an independent director. The Board will continue to take this into consideration when considering the future nomination of the Chair of the Board.
2.6	Companies should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	The Remuneration & Nominations Committee is responsible for establishing and facilitating induction for new directors and providing new directors with all such information and advice which may be considered necessary or desirable for the director to commence their appointment to the Board. The Remuneration & Nominations Committee is also responsible for providing directors with access to continuing education for directors for the purpose of updating and maintaining their skills and knowledge to perform their roles as directors effectively. A copy of the Remuneration & Nominations Committee Charter is available on the Company's website at https://investors.acusensus.com/corp-gov/.

¹ "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must also lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The Appendix 4G serves a dual purpose. It acts as a key designed to assist readers to locate the governance disclosures made by a listed entity under Listing Rule 4.10.3 and under the ASX Corporate Governance Council's recommendations. It also acts as a verification tool for listed entities to confirm that they have met the disclosure requirements of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

The Appendix 4G is not a substitute for, and is not to be confused with, the entity's corporate governance statement. They serve different purposes and an entity must produce each of them separately.

² Tick whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where your corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

³ Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes "OR" at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the "OR" at the end of the selection.

See notes 4 and 5 below for further instructions on how to complete this form.
