

ASX Announcement

6 September 2024

Market Update

Elanor Investors Group ("Group") advises that further to its request for the voluntary suspension of its securities announced on 23 August 2024, the Group has made significant progress in respect of options to stabilise and maintain its ongoing financial position as outlined in the previous announcement.

The Group expects to be in a position to provide an update to the market early next week addressing the matters set out in its voluntary suspension request and to finalise and lodge its Appendix 4E Preliminary Final Report at that time, with the intention of returning the Group's securities to trading early next week.

ENDS.
