FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND REPORT – YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2024

The Corporations Act requires:

- the reports of the directors and auditors; and
- the annual financial report, including the financial statements of the Company, for the financial year ended 30 June 2024, to be laid before the Annual General Meeting. Neither the Corporations Act nor the Constitution require a vote of Shareholders on the reports or statements. However, Shareholders as a whole will be given a reasonable opportunity to raise questions or comments on the management of the Company.

Also, a reasonable opportunity will be given to Shareholders as a whole at the AGM to ask the Company's auditor questions relevant to the conduct of the audit, the preparation and content of the auditor's report, the accounting policies adopted by the Company in relation to the preparation of the financial statements and the independence of the auditor in relation to the conduct of the audit.

The Company will not provide a hard copy of the Company's annual financial report to Shareholders unless specifically requested to do so. Shareholders can access a copy of the annual report on the Company's website at <https://commsgroup.limited>.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolution 1: Non-Binding Resolution to adopt Remuneration Report

The Directors' report for the year ended 30 June 2024 contains a Remuneration Report which sets out the policy for the remuneration of the Directors and key executives of the Company. The Corporations Act requires that at a listed company's annual general meeting, a resolution that the remuneration report be adopted be put to the Company's shareholders. However, section 250R(3) of the Corporations Act expressly provides that the vote on the Resolution is advisory only and does not bind the Directors or the Company.

The Remuneration Report explains the Board policies in relation to the nature and level of remuneration paid to Directors, sets out remuneration details for each Director and any service agreements and sets out the details of any share-based compensation. The remuneration report is part of the Directors' report contained in the annual financial report of the Company for a financial year.

The Directors will consider the outcome of the vote and comments made by Shareholders on the Remuneration Report at the Meeting when reviewing the Company's remuneration policies. Shareholders are encouraged to read the below section of this Explanatory Memorandum for further details on the consequences of voting on this Resolution.

A reasonable opportunity for discussion of, and comment on, the Remuneration Report will be provided by the Chair at the Annual General Meeting.

Voting consequences

A company is required to put to its shareholders a resolution proposing the calling of another meeting of shareholders to consider the appointment of directors of the Company (Spill Resolution) if, at consecutive annual general meetings, at least 25% of the votes cast on a remuneration report resolution are voted against adoption of the remuneration report and at the first of those annual general meetings a Spill Resolution was not put to vote. If required, the Spill Resolution must be put to vote at the second of those annual general meetings.

If more than 50% of votes cast are in favour of the Spill Resolution, the company must convene a shareholder meeting (Spill Meeting) within 90 days of the second annual general meeting.

All of the directors of the company who were in office when the directors' report (as included in the company's annual financial report for the most recent financial year) was approved, other than the managing director of the company, will cease to hold office immediately before the end of the Spill Meeting but may stand for re-election at the Spill Meeting.

Following the Spill Meeting those persons whose election or re-election as directors of the company is approved will be the directors of the company.

Previous voting results

At the Company's previous annual general meeting the votes cast against the remuneration report considered at that annual general meeting was 17.15%. Accordingly, the Spill Resolution is not relevant for this Annual General Meeting.

Resolution 2: Re-election of Director – Mr Ryan O'Hare

Pursuant to rule 63 of the Constitution, retiring director Ryan O'Hare, being eligible to do so, has offered himself for re-election. Ryan is a non-executive director and Chair of the Company and was appointed to the Board by directors on 21 January 2021 and elected by shareholders on 23 November 2021. This Resolution seeks Shareholder approval for the re-election of Mr Ryan O'Hare.

Profile of Mr Ryan O'Hare

Ryan has founded a number of highly successful companies starting with CorpTEL Communications, which in 1998 became one of the largest privately owned telecommunication companies in Australia before its sale to AAPT, People Telecom in 2000 that is now part of the Vocus Group and Next Telecom, this is no now part of Comms Group. Ryan also founded & chairs one of Australia's largest SME energy only retailers, Next Business Energy.

Ryan is Chairman of Comms Group Limited and a Member of the Audit, Risk and Governance Committee.

The Board (excluding Ryan O'Hare, who abstains from making a recommendation) support the re-election of Ryan and recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 2.

Resolution 3: Approval of Additional 10% Placement Capacity

The Company seeks Shareholder approval to permit the Company to issue an additional 10% of its issued capital over a 12-month period in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 7.1A (Additional Placement Capacity).

ASX Listing Rule 7.1 permits the Company to issue a maximum of 15% of its capital in any 12-month period without requiring shareholder approval. Under ASX Listing Rule 7.1A, eligible entities (companies that are outside the S&P/ASX 300 Index and have a market capitalisation of $300 million or less) can issue a further 10% of share capital in 12 months on a non-pro rata basis subject to the Company obtaining shareholder approval at its Annual General Meeting.

Securities issued under the Additional Placement Capacity must be in the same class as an existing quoted class of securities of the Company. As at the date of this Notice the Company has one class of quoted securities on issue, being Ordinary Fully Paid Shares (ASX Code: CCG).

The Company is an eligible entity as at the date of this Notice of Meeting. The number of Shares that may be issued (if Shareholder approval is obtained at the Annual General Meeting) will be determined in accordance with the following formula prescribed in ASX Listing Rule 7.1A.2:

- A is the number of fully paid shares on issue 12 months before the date of issue or agreement:
- (a) plus, the number of fully paid shares issued in the 12 months under an exception in ASX Listing Rule 7.2.
 - (b) plus, the number of partly paid shares that became fully paid in the 12 months.
 - (c) plus, the number of fully paid shares issued in the 12 months with approval of holders of Shares under ASX Listing Rules 7.1 and 7.4. This does not include an issue of fully paid shares under the entity's 15% capacity pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 7.1 without shareholder approval; and
 - (d) less the number of fully paid shares cancelled in the 12 months.

D is 10%.

E is the number of equity securities issued or agreed to be issued under Listing Rules 7.1A.2 in the 12 months before the date of the issue or agreement to issue that are not issued with the approval of Shareholders under ASX Listing Rule 7.4.

Equity Securities on issue as of 8 October 2024	387,749,877 Shares

The table below shows the dilution of existing Shareholders based on the current market price of Shares and the current number of ordinary securities for variable "A" calculated under the formula in ASX Listing Rule 7.1A (2) as at the date of this Notice of Meeting.

The table shows two examples where variable "A" has increased, by 50% and 100%. Variable "A" is based on the number of ordinary securities the Company has on issue. The number of ordinary securities on issue may increase as a result of issues of ordinary securities that do not require shareholder approval (for example, a pro rata entitlement issue or scrip issued under a takeover offer) or future specific placements under ASX Listing Rule 7.1 that are approved at a future meeting of shareholders.

The table also shows two examples where the issue price of ordinary securities has decreased by 50% and increased by 100% as against the market (issue) price as of 8 October 2024.

		Shares issued – 10% voting dilution	Dilution
			Issue Price
Number of Shares on Issue (Variable A in Listing Rule 7.1A.2)			$0.039	$0.078	$0.156
			50% decrease	Issue Price	100% increase
			Funds Raised
Current shares	387,749,877	38,774,988	$ 1,512,225	$ 3,024,449	$ 6,048,898
50% increase	581,624,816	58,162,482	$ 2,268,337	$ 4,536,674	$ 9,073,347
100% increase	775,499,754	77,549,975	$ 3,024,449	$ 6,048,898	$ 12,097,796

The number of Shares on issue (Variable A in the formula) could increase as a result of the issue of Shares that do not require Shareholder approval (such as under a pro-rata rights issue or scrip issued under a takeover offer) or that are issued with Shareholder approval under ASX Listing Rule 7.1.

The table above uses the following assumptions:

- There are currently 387,749,877 Shares on issue.
- The issue price set out above is the closing market price of the Shares on ASX on 8 October 2024.
- The Company issues the maximum possible number of Equity Securities under the ASX Listing Rule 7.1A Mandate.

4. The issue of Equity Securities under the ASX Listing Rule 7.1A mandate consists only of Shares. It is assumed that no Options or Performance Rights or Convertible Notes are exercised into Shares before the date of issue of the Equity Securities.
5. The calculations above do not show the dilution that any one particular Shareholder will be subject to. All Shareholders should consider the dilution caused to their own shareholding depending on their specific circumstances.
6. This table does not set out any dilution pursuant to approvals under ASX Listing Rule 7.1 unless otherwise disclosed.
7. The 10% voting dilution reflects the aggregate percentage dilution against the issued share capital at the time of issue. This is why the voting dilution is shown in each example as 10%.
8. The table does not show an example of dilution that may be caused to a particular Shareholder by reason of placements under the ASX Listing Rule 7.1A Mandate, based on that Shareholder's holding at the date of the Meeting.

Previous approval under Listing Rule 7.1A

The Company previously obtained approval from its Shareholders pursuant to Listing Rule 7.1A at its annual general meeting held on 22 November 2023 (Previous Approval).

No securities were issued under ASX Listing Rule 7.1 in the 12 months before this Meeting

No securities were issued under ASX Listing Rule 7.1A.2 in the 12 months before this Meeting.

Shareholders should note that there is a risk that:

- a) the market price for the Company's Shares may be significantly lower on the issue date than on the date of the Meeting; and
- b) the Shares may be issued at a price that is at a discount to the market price for those Shares on the date of issue.

Board Recommendation

Resolution 3 is a special resolution, requiring approval of at least 75% of the votes cast by Shareholders present and eligible to vote (in person, by proxy, by attorney or, in the case of a corporate Shareholder, by a corporate representative) in order to be passed.

The Board unanimously recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 3.

Resolution 4: Approval to insert proportional takeover provisions in the Constitution

The Company seeks Shareholder approval, by way of special resolution, to permit the Company to modify its existing Constitution by inserting the proportional takeover provisions set out in Schedule 1 as a new clause 107, for a period of 3 years from the date of Shareholder approval.

A proportional takeover bid is a takeover bid where the offer made to each Shareholder is only for a proportion of that Shareholder's shares (i.e., less than 100%).

Section 648G of the Corporations Act permits a company to include, in its constitution, proportional takeover provisions prohibiting the registration of a transfer of securities resulting from a proportional takeover bid unless and until a shareholders' resolution to approve the proportional takeover bid is passed in accordance with those provisions by the holders of the shares of the class to which the shares being bid for belong.

The proportional takeover provisions allow holders of the relevant shares to decide whether a proportional takeover bid is acceptable and should be allowed to proceed.

Under section 648G(1) of the Corporations Act, a company's proportional takeover provisions will cease to apply at the end of 3 years from adoption or renewal (as applicable), unless otherwise specified. When the proportional takeover provisions cease to apply, the company's constitution is, by force of section 648G(3) of the Corporations Act, altered by omitting the provisions.

Required Information

In compliance with section 648G(5) of the Corporations Act, the Company provides the following information:

Effect of proposed proportional takeover provisions	If a takeover offer is made under a proportional takeover bid for a class of the Company's securities, the Directors must ensure that a resolution to approve the takeover bid (Approval Resolution) is voted by the Shareholders of the class of Shares being bid, not less than 14 days before the last day of the bid period (Deadline).

	The only persons entitled to vote on the Approval Resolution are those persons who, as at the end of the day on which the first offer under the takeover bid was made, held Shares included in the bid class in respect of which the offer was made. The bidder under the takeover bid and its associates are not entitled to vote on the Approval Resolution. Each person entitled to vote has one vote for each Share in the relevant class held by the person at that time. The vote on the Approval Resolution is decided on a simple majority. The Approval Resolution will be taken to have been passed if more than 50% of votes are cast in favour of the Approval Resolution, otherwise it is taken to have been rejected. The Directors will breach the Corporations Act if they fail to ensure the Approval Resolution is voted on. However, if the Approval Resolution is not voted on as at the end of the day before the Deadline, the Approval Resolution is taken to have been passed. If the Approval Resolution is passed (or taken to have been passed) by the Shareholders, the transfer resulting from the bid must be registered if they comply with other provisions of the Corporations Act and the Constitution. If the Approval Resolution is rejected, binding acceptances must be rescinded as soon as practicable after the Deadline, and all unaccepted offers and offers failing to result in binding contracts are taken to have been withdrawn at the end of the Deadline. The proportional takeover provisions do not apply to full takeover bids. Clause 107 will expire three years after its insertion into the Constitution, unless renewed by a further special resolution of Shareholders.
Reasons for proportional takeover provisions	A proportional takeover bid involves an offer for only a proportion of each Shareholder's securities, this may allow control of the Company to pass without Shareholders having the chance to sell all their securities to the bidder and assist a bidder to take control of the Company without payment of an adequate control premium. Shareholders, other than the bidder and its associates, may be exposed to the risk of being left as a collective minority in the Company as well as the loss of potential to receive an adequate control premium for their remaining Shares. The proportional takeover provisions lessen these risks because they allow Shareholders to decide whether a proportional takeover bid is acceptable in principle, is appropriately priced and should be permitted to proceed.
Knowledge of any acquisition proposals	As at the date of this notice, no Director is aware of any proposal by any person to acquire, or to increase the extent of, a substantial interest in the Company.
Potential advantages and disadvantages of the proportional takeover provisions for Directors and Shareholders	Directors The Directors consider that there are no potential advantages or disadvantages to Directors in the proposed insertion of the proportional takeover provisions, because they remain free to make a recommendation on whether a proportional takeover bid should be accepted. Shareholders The Directors consider that the potential advantages of the proposed proportional takeover provisions for Shareholders include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Shareholders have the right to decide by majority vote whether a proportional takeover bid should proceed. • the provisions may assist Shareholders to avoid being locked in as a collective minority. • the bargaining power of Shareholders is increased, and this may assist in ensuring that any proportional bid is adequate in order for it to proceed; and • knowing the view of the majority of Shareholders assists each individual Shareholder in assessing the likely outcome of the proportional takeover bid and whether to approve or reject that offer. The Directors consider that the potential disadvantages of the proposed proportional takeover provisions for Shareholders include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the provisions are a hurdle to and may discourage the making of proportional takeover bids in respect of the Company. • Shareholders may lose an opportunity of selling some of their securities at a premium; and

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• the prospects of a proportional takeover bid being successful may be reduced. The Board considers that the potential advantages for Shareholders in the proposed insertion of the proportional takeover provisions outweigh the potential disadvantages. In particular, Shareholders as a whole should be able to decide whether or not a proportional takeover bid can be successful.

Shareholders may act.

If the special resolution to insert the proportional takeover provisions set out in Schedule 1 as a new clause 107 in the Constitution is passed, Shareholders who together hold not less than 10% (by number) of the issued securities in a class of securities in the Company to which the provisions apply may, within 21 days after the day on which the special resolution is passed, apply to the Court to have the proportional takeover provisions set aside to the extent to which it relates to that class of Shareholders.

On an application, the Court may make an order setting aside the proportional takeover provisions if it is satisfied that it is appropriate in all the circumstances to do so. Otherwise, the Court must dismiss the application. Unless and until an application is finally determined by the making of an order setting aside the proportional takeover provision, the Company is taken for all purposes to have validly included the proportional takeover provision applying to that class of Shareholders.

Board Recommendation

Resolution 4 is a special resolution, requiring approval of at least 75% of the votes cast by Shareholders present and eligible to vote (in person, by proxy, by attorney or, in the case of a corporate Shareholder, by a corporate representative) in order to be passed.

The Board unanimously recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 4.

107.9 Under the Corporations Act, this clause 107 automatically ceases to have effect on the date which is three years:

- (a) after the date this clause was inserted in this Constitution; or
- (b) if this clause has been renewed since the date it was inserted in this Constitution, after the date on which this clause 107 was last renewed, provided that the resolution renewing this clause 107 did not state that this clause is renewed for a specified period of less than three years.
