LEADERSHIP CHANGES

Alpha HPA Limited (Alpha or the Company) (ASX: A4N) is pleased to provide an update on key leadership changes with on the Company.

Effective 1 February 2025, Mr Rob Williamson, Executive Director, and the Company's Chief Operations Officer (COO), will assume the role of Managing Director (MD), based in Brisbane QLD.

The Company's current MD, Mr Rimas Kairaitis will assume the role of Executive Director and Chief Commercial Officer (CCO). Rimas will focus and expand his current activities in leading the sales and marketing team and continue to drive the product development of the Company's unique high purity materials. Rimas will also continue to lead interface with the Company's existing and developing strategic stakeholders.

These changes have been carefully planned to calibrate the Company's leadership to reflect the needs of the business into the future as the Company moves into its next phase of growth and expands its operational footprint in Queensland.

The construction of Stage 2 of the HPA First Project to become the world's largest, single site facility for the manufacture of high purity aluminium materials, represents a unique stage in the growth of the Company and Rob's intimate knowledge of Alpha's business and major project startup and asset operations experience represent the ideal skill set for the Company's Managing Director.

The Company has commenced a search for a new COO, with Rob continuing these responsibilities in the interim.

In addition, long standing Executive Director Mr Peter Nightingale has decided to retire from the Board and his executive role, also effective 1 February 2025. In accordance with Listing Rule 3.19A, an Appendix 3Z. Final Director's Interest Notice is attached for Mr Nightingale.

Alpha's Chairman, Norm Seckold said, "We are very pleased to optimise these key roles as we set up for the Company's next exciting growth phase, with Rob and Rimas continuing their highly effective senior executive leadership in building the Alpha business."

I would also like to thank Peter for his extensive knowledge, guidance and commitment to the growth of Alpha over a period of 15 years."
