Investor briefing: Equity Trustees on meeting the market for trustee services

Briefing to be held on 3 April in Sydney

EQT Holdings Limited (ASX:EQT), which operates under the brand name Equity Trustees, will hold an Investor Briefing to update investors about the core functions of the trustee business, and how they are adapting to current market demand in the private, corporate and superannuation trustee segments.

The briefing will feature many of the leaders of the business, including Ian Westley, EGM Trustee and Wealth Services, and Andrew Godfrey, EGM Corporate and Superannuation Trustee Services - the two divisions which drive revenue for the business. It will be an opportunity for those at the 2024 briefing to understand the development and evolution of each product and service offering in each division and for new investors to gain a deeper understanding of this unique business.

The leaders will update investors on how Equity Trustees is currently viewing opportunities for future growth and success following another year of solid results.

Managing Director Mick O'Brien and CFO Johanna Platt will facilitate the briefing. This will be an in-person event.

Registrations are essential.

Details: 9.00am – 11.30am
Thursday 3 April 2025
