

ASX / MEDIA RELEASE

15 APRIL 2025

REVISED SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

NextEd Group Limited (ASX: NXD) (NextEd or the Company) advises that its Board has approved and adopted a revised Securities Trading Policy (Policy).

The key change in the revised Policy is to the permitted trading windows framework. Under the previous Policy, NextEd's directors, executives and employees (NextEd Personnel) were only permitted to deal in the Company's securities during very limited trading windows, being the one-month period following half year and full year results and the AGM. Under the revised Policy, NextEd Personnel are permitted to deal in the Company's securities at any time outside of defined Blackout Periods as long as they are not in possession of price sensitive information. Some further guidance regarding price sensitive information and the "front page" test has also been included in the revised Policy.

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 12.10, a copy of the revised Securities Trading Policy is attached to this announcement and is also available on the Company's website at <https://nexted.com.au/governance/>

This announcement has been approved for release by the Board of NextEd Group Limited.

SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

Version: April 2025

POLICY NAME	Securities Trading Policy
POLICY MANAGER	Company Secretary
APPROVAL AUTHORITY	Board
ADOPTION DATE	14 April 2025
VERSION REFERENCE	April 2025

Securities trading policy

1. Background

- 1.1 The principal insider trading prohibition is section 1043A of the Corporations Act. Subject to limited exceptions, it prohibits a person (insider) who has Inside Information relating to Company Securities or the quoted Securities of another entity from:
 - (a) Dealing in relevant Securities;
 - (b) procuring another person to do so; or
 - (c) communicating, directly or not, Inside Information to someone else when the insider knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the other person would or is likely to:
 - (i) Deal in relevant Securities; or
 - (ii) procure another person to do so.
- 1.2 It does not matter how the insider received the information.
- 1.3 Insider trading is a criminal offence, punishable by substantial fines or imprisonment or both. The Company may also be liable if a Designated Officer or Employee (together referred to as NextEd Personnel) engages in insider trading.
- 1.4 Insider trading may also attract civil penalties. A court may impose substantial pecuniary penalties, and order compensation be paid to persons suffering related loss or damage and impose banning orders prohibiting participation in the management of a corporation.

2. Interpretation

Capitalised words and phrases are defined terms. For definitions, see section 15.

3. Introduction

- 3.1 This policy outlines:
 - (a) when NextEd Personnel and each of their Associates must not Deal in Company Securities;
 - (b) when NextEd Personnel and each of their Associates must not Deal in quoted Securities of another entity; and
 - (c) when Dealing in Company Securities or the quoted Securities of another entity is permitted.

4. What is Inside Information?

- (a) Inside Information is information that:
 - (i) is not generally available; and
 - (ii) if it were generally available, would, or would be likely to, influence persons who normally invest in securities in deciding whether to acquire or dispose of relevant Securities.
- (b) Information is generally available if it:
 - (i) is readily observable;
 - (ii) has been made known in a way that is likely to bring it to the attention of persons who normally invest in the relevant type of securities, and reasonable time for the information to be circulated has since passed; or
 - (iii) consists of deductions, conclusions or inferences drawn from information that has been made known in that way or is readily observable.
- (c) Inside Information is also called 'material price-sensitive information'. It need not relate only to the Company. It could also be information about a customer, or supplier of the Company, or a party with whom the Company is discussing future opportunities or negotiating a significant transaction.
- (d) In order to minimise the risk of insider trading, the Company must immediately disclose to the ASX material price-sensitive information not otherwise excluded from disclosure, as set out in the Company's Disclosure Policy.
- (e) Material price-sensitive information is Inside Information even if it does not trigger a disclosure obligation under the continuous disclosure regime.
- (f) NextEd Personnel will from time to time be in a situation where they are in possession of material price-sensitive information. While it is not possible to provide an exhaustive list, examples could include information in relation to the Company's financial performance, earnings guidance or forecasts that are different from market expectations, a proposed corporate transaction such as an acquisition, sale of a significant asset or significant strategic alliance, new material contracts or termination of material contracts, material changes in regulations affecting the Company's business or pending changes to senior executives or the Board. Whether or not any particular set of circumstances is material price-sensitive information will depend on the facts. If you are unsure, you should err on the side of caution, refrain from trading, and seek advice.
- (g) As a guiding principle, any NextEd Personnel considering dealing in Securities should ask themselves:

If the market was aware of all the current circumstances, could the proposed dealing be perceived by the market as taking advantage of my position in an inappropriate way? How would it look if the transaction were reported on the front page of the newspaper (the "front page" test).

If any NextEd Personnel is unsure, they should consult the Company Secretary. Where any approval under this policy is required for a dealing, approval will not be granted where the dealing would not satisfy the "front page" test.

5. What is Dealing in Securities?

5.1 Dealing in Securities includes:

- (a) applying for, acquiring or disposing of, Securities;
- (b) entering into an agreement to do so; and
- (c) granting, accepting, acquiring, disposing, exercising or discharging an option or other right or obligation to acquire or dispose of Securities.

5.2 Dealing in Company Securities can include, but is not limited to:

- (a) buying or selling Company Securities by way of an on-market or off-market transaction;
- (b) granting, acquiring or disposing of a beneficial interest in Company Securities, such as through a trust that holds Company Securities;
- (c) applying for, acquiring or exercising options or rights over Company Securities;
- (d) acquiring Company Securities (or an interest in them) under any employee share plan operated by the Company;
- (e) accepting, or taking up entitlements under, a dividend reinvestment plan, rights issue, bonus issue, share purchase plan or any other offer of Securities made by the Company;
- (f) accepting an offer under a takeover bid for Company Securities;
- (g) entering into a Derivative; and
- (h) agreeing to do any of the above things.

6. When NextEd Personnel or their Associates must not Deal

NextEd Personnel or their Associates must not, in any circumstances, Deal or procure another person to Deal in Company Securities or quoted Securities of another entity if they have Inside Information in relation to Company Securities or Securities relating to that other entity.

7. Permitted Dealing & Blackout Periods

7.1 Blackout Periods

NextEd Personnel or their Associates must not Deal or procure another person to Deal in Company Securities during any of the following periods (Blackout Periods):

- (a) the period from the close of trading on the ASX on 30 June each year, or if that date is not a trading day, the last trading day before that day, until the earlier of the day following the release to ASX of:
 - an announcement containing the unaudited results for the period including revenue and EBITDA for the full year; or
 - the "Preliminary Final Report" of the Company;
- (b) the period from the close of trading on the ASX on 31 December each year, or if that date is not a trading day, the last trading day before that day, until the earlier of the day following the release to ASX of:
 - an announcement containing the unaudited results for the period including revenue and EBITDA for the half year; or
 - the "Half Year Report" of the Company; and
- (c) any other period that the Board specifies from time to time.

7.2 Exceptions

Section 7.1 does not apply to Dealing by NextEd Personnel that involves or results directly from any of the following, provided that, if applicable, they have provided notification in accordance with section 8:

- (a) Dealing in Company Securities under an offer or invitation made by the Company to all or most of its ordinary shareholders – such as an offer or invitation under a rights issue, bonus issue, share purchase plan, dividend reinvestment plan, equal access buy-back or in lieu of a cash dividend (and including, without limitation, decisions relating to whether or not to take up entitlements, and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlements, under a renounceable rights issue) – or under an equal reduction of capital undertaken by the Company;

- (b) undertaking to accept, or accepting, an offer for Company Securities made under a takeover bid or disposing of Company Securities under a court-approved compromise or arrangement under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act;
- (c) Dealing in units of or interests in, a fund or other scheme (other than a scheme investing primarily in Company Securities) where the assets of that fund or scheme are invested at a third party's sole discretion;
- (d) where the NextEd Personnel or their Associate is the trustee of a trust, Dealing in Company Securities by that trust provided that neither the NextEd Personnel nor any Associate is a beneficiary of the trust and any decision to trade during a Blackout Period is taken entirely independently of the NextEd Personnel or their Associate;
- (e) disposal of Company Securities effected by a change in the trustee of a trust;
- (f) accepting an offer to acquire Company Securities, or acquiring Company Securities, under any employee share plan that the Board from time to time determines is a plan to which this section applies;
- (g) the exercise (including automatic exercise on vesting, but not the sale of Company Securities following exercise) of an option or right under an employee share plan, or the conversion of a convertible security, where the final date for exercise or conversion falls during a Blackout Period; and the Company has been in an exceptionally long Blackout Period or has had a number of consecutive Blackout Periods and exercise or conversion could not reasonably have occurred outside a Blackout Period;
- (h) the forfeiture, lapse, cancellation or surrender of Company Securities under an employee share plan; or
- (i) an off-market transaction involving the transfer or other disposal of Company Securities between a NextEd Personnel or Associate and any of the following:
 - (i) an Associate of the relevant NextEd Personnel (or, in the case of an Associate, the NextEd Personnel);
 - (ii) a company, trust or other entity over which the relevant NextEd Personnel or Associate of that NextEd Personnel has control or significant influence (whether alone or jointly with any of their Associates); or
 - (iii) a superannuation fund or other pension or saving scheme in which the relevant Designated Officer or an Associate of that Designated Officer is a beneficiary.

7.3 All such Dealing is subject to the overriding insider trading prohibition – that is, NextEd Personnel or each of their Associates must not Deal if they possess Inside Information in relation to Company Securities.

7.4 NextEd Personnel may Deal in the quoted Securities relating to another entity if they do not have Inside Information in relation to those Securities.

8. Designated Officers - Notification and Clearance outside Blackout Periods

8.1 If a Designated Officer proposes to Deal in Company Securities outside a Blackout Period, he or she must, prior to such Dealing, obtain clearance by providing:

- (a) written notice of his or her intention to the Clearance Officer two business days prior to the proposed date of Dealing; and
- (b) confirmation that he or she is not in possession of Inside Information, in the form of the template in Appendix A. Clearance will be confirmed in writing by the Clearance Officer and, unless otherwise specified in the Clearance, will be valid for ten business days from the date of the Clearance. After such Dealing, the Designated Officer must provide the Clearance Officer with a transaction confirmation.

9. NextEd Personnel - Clearance during a Blackout Period in exceptional circumstances

- 9.1 The Clearance Officer may give a Clearance to dispose of Company Securities during a Blackout Period in exceptional circumstances. Exceptional circumstances may include:
- (a) if a person is required by court order, or enforceable undertaking (e.g. in a bona fide family settlement) to transfer or sell Company Securities or there is another overriding legal requirement to do so; or
 - (b) if a person has a pressing financial commitment that cannot otherwise be satisfied, and all reasonable alternatives have been investigated.
- 9.2 A tax liability will not generally constitute a pressing financial commitment unless it fits the definition in section 9.1(b).
- 9.3 A Clearance Officer may delegate his or her authority in writing to an appropriate person in the event of illness or absence, provided that person is not a member of the class for which they are the Clearance Officer.
- 9.4 The Clearance Officer has discretion to determine that circumstances other than in section 9.1 nevertheless warrant Clearance.
- 9.5 Clearance will not be given:
- (a) retrospectively,
 - (b) if there is a matter about which there is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities (regardless of whether the applicant is aware of it) when Clearance is requested; or
 - (c) if there is other reason to believe that the proposed Dealing breaches this policy.
- 9.6 A request for Clearance to dispose of Company Securities during a Blackout Period must:
- (a) be in writing and given by hand or email to the Clearance Officer at least five business days prior to the proposed disposal of Company Securities;
 - (b) set out the number of Company Securities proposed to be disposed of, and whether the proposed transaction will be on-market or off-market; and
 - (c) include:
 - (i) sufficient information to demonstrate exceptional circumstances and that the proposed disposal is the only reasonable course of action available to the applicant; and
 - (ii) a declaration that the applicant does not believe they have any Inside Information.

A template request is included in Appendix B.

- 9.7 The Clearance Officer must:
- (a) keep a written record of:
 - (i) any information or request received in connection with this policy; and
 - (ii) any Clearance given; and
 - (b) send a copy of that record to the Company Secretary for keeping.
- 9.8 The Company Secretary must keep a file of materials received under section 9.7.
- 9.9 A Clearance:
- (a) must be in writing and may be given by hand or emailed;
 - (b) will only be given if the Clearance Officer is satisfied that the applicant does not possess Inside Information and, if in relation to Dealing during a Blackout Period, the circumstances are exceptional;

- (c) cannot extend for more than 10 business days (with the effect that the relevant Dealing must be commenced within that period); and
 - (d) lapses immediately if the applicant begins to possess Inside Information.
- 9.10 A Clearance is not an endorsement. Designated Officers, Employees and Associates remain responsible for their compliance with this policy and the Corporations Act.
- 10. Communicating Inside Information
 - 10.1 A NextEd Personnel or Associate must not directly or indirectly communicate Inside Information in relation to Company Securities or quoted Securities relating to another entity, if they know, or ought reasonably to know, that the other person would be likely to:
 - (a) Deal in relevant Securities; or
 - (b) procure another person to so Deal.
 - 10.2 The provisions of section 10 do not limit, and are additional to, other duties of confidentiality.
- 11. Notice of change in director's interest
 - 11.1 Directors must ensure that an Appendix 3Y (Change of Directors' Interest Notice) is completed and provided to the Company Secretary within 2 business days after the completion of any Dealing in Company Securities or the Securities of a related body corporate. If the Dealing is an on-market purchase or disposal of quoted Securities, the director must provide the Company Secretary written notice of the purchase or disposal within 2 business days of the date on which the trade is executed on-market.
 - 11.2 The Company Secretary must provide the Appendix 3Y notice to ASX within the time required under ASX Listing Rule 3.19.A.2.
- 12. Speculative dealing

A Designated Officer must not Deal in Company Securities on considerations of a Short-Term Nature.
- 13. Derivatives
 - 13.1 The Company may grant securities, options or performance rights to its employees as part of their remuneration entitlements. These grants will usually be subject to the satisfaction of performance or time-based hurdles before they vest in the Employee or Designated Officer. The use of Derivatives over unvested Company Securities may allow value to be realised from those Securities even if performance hurdles have not been met. This would break the intended connection between staff performance and shareholder best interests. Additionally, the hedging of remuneration by key management personnel of the Group is prohibited by Part 2D.7 of the Corporations Act.
 - 13.2 Accordingly, Employees and Designated Officers are not permitted to use Derivatives in relation to any unvested Company Securities in any way.
 - 13.3 Employees and Designated Officers may use Derivatives in relation to vested Company Securities, provided any Dealing complies with the balance of this policy.
- 14. Margin loans
 - 14.1 Margin loans to support an investment in Company Securities can compromise compliance with this policy as the loan's terms may compel the sale of Company Securities during a Blackout Period or when the Employee or Designated Officer has relevant Inside Information.

14.2 Accordingly, Employees and Designated Officers are prohibited from entering into margin loan arrangements to fund the acquisition of Company Securities or in relation to which Company Securities may be used as security against loan repayment.

15. Defined terms

Associate means someone that a Designated Officer or Employee can be regarded as having investment control or influence over, including:

- (a) a family member (including a child);
- (b) a nominee of the person (including an investment manager or adviser managing funds on the person's behalf);
