Appointment of Independent Non-Executive Director – Chris Scott

5G Networks Limited (“5GN” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that Mr Chris Scott has agreed to become an independent non-executive director of the Company with effect from the 9th May 2025.

Chris Scott is a seasoned leader with over 25 years’ experience in elite performance, strategic leadership, and cultural transformation. As the current Head Coach of the Geelong Football Club since 2011, Chris has driven one of the most successful eras in modern AFL history, underpinned by a disciplined, values-driven approach to leadership and team development. His earlier career included a successful playing tenure with the Brisbane Lions during their premiership era (1994–2007), followed by an assistant coaching role at the Fremantle Football Club.

Chris is widely regarded for his expertise in people management, leadership development, and building high-performing teams in complex, competitive environments. His corporate and academic credentials include executive education programs at Harvard University (3), Stanford University, New York University (2), Columbia University, and The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, where he completed the Maximising Your Effectiveness in the Boardroom governance program.

As a Professor of Practice at Deakin University, Chris has collaborated with the University’s data science team in the area of sports science, combining practical expertise with data-driven innovation. Additionally, he holds a leadership position at Morris Finance, a finance and asset management firm, where he contributes strategic insights to help drive business growth and operational efficiency.

Chris brings a unique combination of governance awareness, leadership acumen, and data-informed decision-making to the boardroom, making him a strong asset to ASX-listed companies seeking independent directors with integrity, resilience, and a track record of results.

Chairman Mr Hugh Robertson said:

“We are thrilled to welcome Chris Scott to 5GN. Chris brings a unique blend of leadership, strategic insight, and high-performance culture from his distinguished career in elite sport. Chris will be an invaluable asset as we continue to drive growth and innovation. We look forward to the fresh perspective and energy he will bring to the organisation.”
