

Successful $17M Institutional Placement to Support Ongoing Samphire Development Activity

Not for release to US wire services or distribution in the United States

Highlights:

- Firm commitments received to raise $17.25M (before costs) via placement to institutional and sophisticated investors.
- The Placement was strongly supported by institutional investors, both in Australia and overseas and has materially strengthened the Alligator share register.
- Placement proceeds will enable Alligator to support further work programs at the Samphire Uranium Project during 2025 and into 2026.
- Key activities to be progressed in parallel with the Samphire Field Recovery Trial (FRT) include; commencing a feasibility study and mining lease application, complete extended land access discussions and (subject to this) commence resource drilling on the Plumbush satellite uranium prospect and known extensions to the southern Blackbush deposit, and general working capital.
- Additionally, Alligator will be well-funded to continue uranium exploration at Big Lake and seek to deliver on its discovery and exploration potential.
- The Field Recovery Trial final approval (refer ASX release 18 June 2025), construction and operational results of this, plus the above work will generate a strong stream of news flow through the second half of 2025 and into 2026.
- Total funds raised will provide a substantial runway for Alligator to progress advancing the Samphire project towards ISR uranium production.

Alligator Energy Limited ASX: AGE (Alligator or the Company) is pleased to advise that it has received firm commitments for a placement of A$17.25M to institutional investors and sophisticated investors (Placement).

Bell Potter Securities Limited and Taylor Collison Limited acted as Joint Lead Managers for the capital raising, which received strong interest from Australian and international institutions.

Key highlights of the capital raise include:

- Placement to raise A$17.25M (before costs) via the issue of 556M new ordinary shares (New Shares) at $0.031 per share.

- The Company will also issue one option (Option) for every two New Shares issued pursuant to the Placement. The Options will be exercisable at $0.047 representing a circa 50% premium to the Placement issue price and will be issued subject to shareholder approval to be sought at an upcoming EGM.

Alligator's CEO Greg Hall said, "This capital raising provides the necessary runway for Alligator to conclude its planned Field Recovery Trial while pursuing in parallel key project-enhancing work which will extend beyond this.

The FRT (itself based upon extensive successful bench scale testing) will provide key parameters leading into a definitive feasibility study, with the initial external study team planned to be in place during the operational phase of the FRT.

Once Alligator has received its approved operating plan (Program for Environment Protection and Rehabilitation – PEPR) allowing us to commence construction of the FRT, our approvals team will swing onto pre-work in readiness for the Mining Lease approval.

For placement participants, and for all shareholders, the significant work which Alligator will be undertaking through the second half of 2025 and into 2026 will lead to a stream of value-enhancing news flow into the market.

This value will be augmented by the anticipated strength in the spot uranium price due to macro tailwinds, including AI driven data centre power demand driving nuclear programs globally, along with the potential SPUT spot market uranium purchases after its US$200M capital raising. In conjunction with this, the long-term uranium price has remained at US$80 per lbs for some time, supported by uranium price terms offers into long term offtake contracts.

Alligator sincerely thanks the institutional investors and shareholders in their support of this capital raise."

The Placement comprises the issue of 556,451,620 fully paid ordinary shares, to be issued in one tranche under Alligator's ASX Listing Rule 7.1 capacity.
