Macmahon Secures $144m in New Civil Contract Awards

Macmahon Holdings Limited (ASX: MAH) (Macmahon or 'the Company') is pleased to announce that its subsidiary, Decmil, has secured $144 million in new civil contract awards.

The details of the awards are set out below.

Marble Bar Road Upgrade Project

Decmil has received a notice of award from HanRoy Iron Ore Projects Pty Ltd (HanRoy) in respect of the Marble Bar Road Upgrade Project in Western Australia.

The $104 million contract for sections 5 and 2B covers approximately 46km of road construction upgrade works to Main Roads Western Australia standards on Marble Bar Road. Works are expected to commence in August 2025 for an eight-month period.

Managing Director and CEO Michael Finnegan said:

"We are very pleased to have been awarded additional works at the Marble Bar Road Upgrade project where we have been working closely with the HanRoy team for the past eight months on section 3, the middle 23km, which will be completed this year. Macmahon values our relationship and are excited to continue building on this."

Jerriwah Village Expansion

Hamersley Iron Pty Limited (Hamersley), part of the Rio Tinto Group (ASX: RIO), has awarded Decmil a $28 million contract to deliver Stage 2A of the Jerriwah Village Expansion Project at the Brockman 2 mine located in the West Pilbara Region of Western Australia.

The project involves the installation of client supplied accommodation modules, laundry facilities and a gymnasium. Decmil will also design, supply and install a new multi-sports court facility and other outdoor amenities. Works are set to commence in mid-2025 with completion expected in 2026.

Macmahon's Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, Michael Finnegan, said:

"It is great to see Decmil continue to secure new work, providing a solid foundation for FY26 work in hand. We have an extensive track record in delivering accommodation village design and construction projects and look forward to delivering another at Jerriwah for Rio Tinto. I would like to thank our team for their dedication and support in building a trusted relationship with Rio Tinto and we look forward to strengthening this in the years ahead."
