- Ongoing focus on delivering key strategic objectives driving operational efficiency, creating value for stakeholders including positive engagement on NSW Toll Reform and enhancing value for our customers, and pursuing growth

Commentary on operational performance and outlook²

Chief Executive Officer, Michelle Jablko, said the FY25 result reflected the hard work undertaken to restructure the business and lay the foundations for future growth.

"FY25 was a strong year, marked by continued progress on key strategic focus areas. Traffic was up across all markets, and we outperformed on our cost guidance, translating to a 7% increase in Free Cash for the year. The focus on operational efficiencies is designed to allow Transurban to be a more agile and effective business that can better drive value for stakeholders."

Ms. Jablko emphasized traffic reliability, with the Group achieving over 2.5 million average trips per day and 2.2% growth from the prior year.

"While we saw traffic growth across the Group, North America was the standout, growing at 6.4% and delivering revenue growth of approximately 20%. The year-on-year growth reflects the value customers see in our Express Lanes, including outside peak congestion periods, and the recent investment we have made in Virginia through the Fredericksburg Extension and Opitz Boulevard on the 95 Express Lanes."

Turning to developments in specific markets, Ms Jablko noted positive progress was being made towards an outcome on NSW Toll Reform. "The NSW Government has emphasised the importance of respecting the value of existing contracts and revenue, and we continue to work constructively with them through Stage Two of the Direct Dealing Process. We are optimistic that we are closer to a resolution that will meet the needs of government, motorists, and our investors".

Customer experience remains a consistent focus, delivering value through both digital and physical offerings.

"We continue to set ourselves apart by leveraging technology that enhances the entire customer journey, focusing on tools that support smarter travel decision-making. Additionally, our Linkt Rewards Program is providing value in addition to the on-road travel time savings, fuel savings, and safer journeys. We believe there is additional value to be unlocked in this space, with early trialling of an 'earn and redeem' offering underway."

The strength of the balance sheet was highlighted as a key enabler to support Transurban's opportunity pipeline.

"Our funding profile remained stable throughout the period, supported by strong corporate liquidity that provides capacity to meet near-term commitments and pursue future growth opportunities."

Commenting on the Group's outlook, Ms Jablko noted that Transurban's FY26 distribution guidance will be underpinned by a payout ratio expected to remain within the 95–105% range of Free Cash per security.

"The FY26 distribution guidance of 69 cents per stapled security² reflects approximately 6% growth on FY25 and underscores the strong momentum built throughout FY25".
