Supplementary betr Target's Statement

This document is a supplementary target's statement issued by PointsBet Holdings Limited (PointsBet) in relation to the off-market takeover bid for all the issued shares in PointsBet by betr Entertainment Limited (ACN 647 124 641) (betr) (Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer). This statement supplements, and should be read together with, PointsBet's target's statement dated 21 August 2025 (betr Target's Statement).

1 Update on Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer

The PointsBet Board notes that there have been several recent developments in relation to the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer. These are:

- (a) On 22 August 2025, betr:
 - (i) released a notice of meeting and explanatory memorandum for an extraordinary general meeting of betr Shareholders to be held on 22 September 2025, wherein betr Shareholder approval will be sought for the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer and the Selective Buy-Back;¹ and
 - (ii) provided to PointsBet and released to the ASX a notice of variation given under sections 650C and 650D of the Corporations Act extending the Offer Period to 7:00pm (Sydney time) on 25 September 2025.²
- (b) Also on 22 August 2025, betr issued its First Supplementary Bidder's Statement where it stated, among other things, that it:
 - (i) would not accept the MIXI Takeover Offer; and
 - (ii) would not extend the Offer Period by more than seven days (that is, the Offer Period will not be extended beyond 2 October 2025), other than as required by the Corporations Act.³
- (i) On 27 August 2025, betr issued its Second Supplementary Bidder's Statement where it stated, among other things, that the Offer Consideration under the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer had been increased to 4.375 betr Shares for every PointsBet Share.⁴
- (c) Also on 27 August 2025, betr released to the ASX a notice given under section 650F of the Corporations Act declaring the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer free from the PointsBet Employee Incentives Condition in section 14.13(f) of the betr Replacement Bidder's Statement.⁵
- (d) The effect of the above developments is that:
 - (i) the Offer Consideration under the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer is now 4.375 betr Shares for every PointsBet Share;
 - (ii) the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer remains conditional on, among other things, betr Shareholder approval; and
 - (iii) the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer will not be extended beyond 2 October 2025, other than as required by the Corporations Act.

⁴ See betr Entertainment Limited's ASX announcement dated 27 August 2025 titled 'Second Supplementary Bidder's Statement & Deed Poll'. Betr's Second Supplementary Bidder's Statement also stated that betr had increased the Selective Buy-Back pool from 'at least $80 million' to 'at least $90 million' and it had entered into a deed poll in relation to the Selective Buy-Back in favour of each PointsBet Shareholder who validly accepts the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer.

2 Unanimous PointsBet Board Recommendation

The PointsBet Board unanimously recommends that PointsBet Shareholders REJECT the revised, Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer, by TAKING NO ACTION in relation to the documents sent to you by betr.

The PointsBet Board has determined that the revised Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer of 4.375 betr Shares for every PointsBet Share is not a superior offer relative to the MIXI Takeover Offer. Further, the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer remains subject to several conditions.

PointsBet Shareholders that accept the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer will receive betr Shares and in effect reduce their economic interest in PointsBet in exchange for an economic interest in the betr business, which the PointsBet Board considers to be inferior to that of PointsBet.

Given MIXI Australia's status as the largest PointsBet Shareholder and its stated position that it will not accept the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer, PointsBet Shareholders that accept the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer will be receiving shares in a company (betr) with no capacity to achieve any of the synergies that betr claims would arise if betr and PointsBet were fully merged. Such shareholders would instead be holding shares in betr, which in turn, would hold a minority position in PointsBet.

betr has stated that it intends to offer the opportunity for PointsBet Shareholders who accept the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer to participate in the Selective Buy-Back. If the Selective Buy-Back proceeds, PointsBet Shareholders who accept the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer and choose not to participate in the Selective Buy-Back, or those who participate in the Selective Buy-Back but are scaled back, will retain exposure to betr.

A large percentage of betr's overall value at that time would be its minority stake in PointsBet. Additionally, under this scenario, betr would have exhausted its cash reserves and be in a position where it has up to $44 million of external debt,⁶ in circumstances where betr has no history of being able to achieve positive cash flow.

The low liquidity of betr's shares on the ASX means that PointsBet Shareholders who accept the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer and who are unable to sell their shares into the Selective Buy-Back may be unable to sell their betr Shares on the ASX at or around the prevailing market price.

3 Update on the MIXI Takeover Offer

As at 27 August 2025, MIXI Australia had a relevant interest in 42.38% of PointsBet Shares.⁷

The PointsBet Board continues to unanimously recommend that PointsBet Shareholders ACCEPT the MIXI Takeover Offer, in the absence of a superior proposal.

The MIXI Takeover Offer closes at 7.00pm (Melbourne time) on 29 August 2025 and will not be further extended.⁸

PointsBet Shareholders who would like to receive $1.25 in cash per PointsBet Share should accept the MIXI Takeover Offer now, before it closes.

4 Intended reconstitution of the PointsBet Board

Given the current status of the MIXI Takeover Offer and the Unsolicited betr Scrip Offer, there is a strong likelihood that MIXI Australia will have effective, if not actual, control of PointsBet at the conclusion of the MIXI Takeover Offer. betr will, therefore, be a minority shareholder in PointsBet.

At the conclusion of the MIXI Takeover Offer, and given that PointsBet and MIXI Australia are not competitors in Australia or Canada, PointsBet intends to offer MIXI Australia representation on the PointsBet Board commensurate with MIXI Australia's shareholding in PointsBet.

⁶ As at 30 June 2025, betr had $34 million of drawn external debt and, on 27 August 2025, betr announced that it had entered into a shareholder loan facility with YAST Investments Pty Ltd (an entity associated with Matthew Tripp, betr's Chairman) with a principal amount of $10 million to partially fund the Selective Buy-Back.
