Update on claim against insurers

AMP announces it has reached agreements to settle with some insurers legal proceedings brought by AMP for amounts incurred in historical remediation programs which concluded in 2022. AMP sought recovery under its insurance policy of compensation and costs arising out of these historical remediation programs.

To date proceeds totalling approximately $44 million have been received.

AMP remains in discussions with a number of other insurers in relation to these proceedings, following a hearing in August 2025.
