1. Share Placement

AGH has received binding commitments for the issue of approximately 141.7 million ordinary shares (Placement Shares) utilising its existing ASX Listing Rule 7.1 and 7.1A capacity, at $0.018 each to raise a total of $2.55 million (before costs) (Share Placement).

The offer of the Placement Shares was made to sophisticated and professional investors in Australia and successfully closed, accepting binding commitments of $2.55 million (before costs).

Mr Katzman commented: "With AGH's strategic transformation now complete, the capital raise comes at the perfect time to drive growth and strengthen financial outcomes at Peak. We'll be investing in targeted growth initiatives, customer development activities and selected capital expenditure projects. The strong support from our shareholders is highly encouraging, and we look forward to delivering on our strategic growth plans across both Canadian and US markets."

The Shares under the Share Placement and the Lead Manager Options will be issued following the lodgement of a cleansing prospectus by AGH pursuant to sections 713 and 708A(11) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

The indicative timetable is summarised in Schedule 1. The terms of the Options are summarised in Schedule 2.

2. Business Update

Peak Processing – Overview

Peak is one of Canada's leading contract THC beverage manufacturers, operating a ~9.0 million can per annum beverage facility in Windsor, Ontario. Peak holds a national market share of ~35% in Canada and has a capital-light expansion path into the US. The business has produced over 500,000 cans in the US and in FY25, produced revenue of ~$15.5 million.

THC Market – Growth Drivers

AGH believe that the market for THC beverages in Canada is experiencing strong year-on-year growth, regulatory loosening and positive changes in consumer preferences that will ultimately drive growth in market share in the coming years. Key growth drivers include:

- Emerging direct-to-store distribution, moving away from traditional government wholesaling
- Introduction of multi-packs in addition to single purchase cans
- Early adoption of corkage service in selected restaurants
- On-premise consumption at festivals and events
- Public consumption in some Canadian Provinces
- Low THC percentage products as an introductory product to non-legacy 'mainstream' users
- Increasing demand and acceptance from traditional alcohol consumers seeking alternatives to alcoholic beverages.

In the US, market developments vary by state; however, one notable trend is emerging: the distribution of THC beverages, principally through mainstream alcohol retail outlets, is becoming embedded with 10%+ of shelf space in the outlets, including select major alcohol retailers that are dedicated to this category.

Mr Katzman commented: "These emerging trends of gradual regulatory reform and greater consumer access and acceptance in a nascent category distinctly reminds me of the growth and establishment of the Estate wine industry's evolution during my 18 years in that sector. For Peak, we are ideally positioned to capitalise on expanded access, increased consumer acceptance and more conventional retail opportunities which translates into category growth and ultimately accelerated revenue opportunities."

Peak's Competitive Advantage

Peak has a consolidated position in the Canadian market that serves as a solid platform for growth:

- 250+ stock-keeping units (SKUs) developed, with 84 SKUs in market
- ~30% of top top-performing SKUs in Canada are manufactured by Peak
- Expertise in every beverage type: seltzers, teas, juices, sodas, lemonades, iced coffees, mocktails, energy drinks
- Long term contracts with industry-leading beverage manufacturers and licenced producers

such as Boston Beer, Collective Project and Cookies

- Patent-pending Envision Emulsion™ – used by approximately 80% of Partner brands

Mr Katzman commented: “Peak's reputation for top quality THC beverages in every conceivable format, stellar fulfilment results and unicorn role as Canada's leading co-manufacturer of THC beverages positions the Company to continue to increase its market share in Canada's buoyant cannabis market where THC beverages outpace the industry in year-on-year growth.

“In the US, our strategic partnership with a new third-party manufacturing site in Florida, ideally suited for THC beverages, combined with the deployment of Peak's Envision Emulsion facility at that site, positions us to leverage our expertise in a burgeoning market to rapidly scale to higher volume manufacturing.”

Peak's growth – FY26 Strategic Initiatives

Peak is well-positioned to drive growth within Canada and expand into the US market in FY26 through the following near-term strategic initiatives:

- Expansion of new products through new entrants into THC beverages in Canada
- Extension of new products from existing customers
- Expansion and new listings from Peak's proprietary brands
- Increase in sales of live resin extraction to third parties as ancillary revenue
- Introduction of US third-party brands into Canada
- Introduction of Canadian third-party brands into US
- Initiation of multi-packs for selected Canadian clients.

Mr Katzman commented: “These initiatives collectively signal clear market momentum, and Peak is strategically placed to capitalise on this shift. Spanning both our existing client base and a pipeline of new opportunities, these developments provide a strong foundation for growth in the coming quarters.”
