Appointment of Chief Risk Officer, Rayna Heckenberg

Kina Securities Limited (ASX:KSL / PNGX:KSL) (Kina or the Company) announces the appointment of Rayna Heckenberg as the Company's new Chief Risk Officer (CRO), commencing 10 November 2025, subject to regulatory approvals.

Rayna brings 25 years of senior management and executive-level experience in banking governance, risk and compliance, complemented by a diverse career that also includes roles in insurance, stockbroking, treasury, and funds management.

For the past five years, Rayna has served as the Chief Risk Officer at Police Bank in New South Wales, Australia, where she has played a pivotal role in advancing the organisation's governance, risk and compliance frameworks. Before this, she spent 18 years in senior leadership positions at both Commonwealth Bank of Australia and Westpac, managing various risk and compliance functions, and leading major transformation initiatives. Rayna holds a Bachelor's degree in Commerce from the University of New South Wales.

CEO and Managing Director, Ivan Vidovich, said, "On behalf of our Board and Management team, I am delighted to welcome Rayna to Kina. In addition to Rayna being exceptionally well-qualified for the CRO role, she is highly motivated to grow local talent and is passionate about making a meaningful difference to our culture, executing Kina's growth strategy, and our role in nation-building."

This Announcement has been authorised for release by the KSL Board Disclosure Committee.
