ORDINARY BUSINESS

Resolution 1

Re-election of a Director

Michael Byrne retires in accordance with the rotation procedure in Rule 89 of the Company's Constitution and, being eligible for re-election under Rule 91 of the Company's Constitution, offers himself for re-election.

The Board (in the absence of Mr Byrne) unanimously recommends the re-election of Mr Byrne. The Chair of the AGM intends to vote all undirected proxies in favour of the re-election of Mr Byrne.

Resolution 2

Appointment of Auditor

EY has been the Company's auditor since the 2020 financial year. Whilst the Board has been satisfied with the services of EY as the Company's auditor, the Board considered it appropriate, in accordance with best practice corporate governance, to undertake a competitive tender process for future audit services. As a consequence, the Company has requested EY to apply to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) under section 329(5) of the Corporations Act for consent to resign as auditor of the Company with effect from the close of the Annual General Meeting.

If ASIC consents to EY's resignation, EY will give its notice of resignation to the Company with effect from the close of the Annual General Meeting. If ASIC does not consent to EY's resignation, EY will continue as the Company's auditor and Resolution 2 will not be put to shareholders.

Following the competitive tender of external audit services, the Board selected Pricewaterhouse Coopers (PwC) as the proposed new auditor of the Company. Section 327B of the Corporations Act requires the Company to obtain the approval of Shareholders for the appointment of PwC as auditor of the Company.

In accordance with section 328B(1) of the Corporations Act, Wentworth Williamson Management Pty Ltd, a shareholder of the Company, has provided written notice to the Company nominating PwC for appointment as auditor of the Company. A copy of the notice of nomination is included.

PwC has provided to the Company, and as at the date of this Notice of Meeting has not withdrawn, its written consent to act as auditor of the Company, in accordance with section 328A(1) of the Corporations Act. The Company is not aware of any matter or circumstances that would give rise to a 'conflict of interest situation', as defined in section 324CD of the Corporations Act, in relation to the Company.

The Company notes that PwC is registered as an auditor under section 1280 of the Corporations Act and is a well-established firm with the necessary expertise and resources to meet the Company's requirements.

Subject to ASIC consenting to EY's resignation as the Company's auditor and the approval of Shareholders being obtained under Resolution 2, the appointment of PwC as auditor of the Company will become effective from the close of the Annual General Meeting.

The Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the appointment of PwC as auditor of the Company.

The chairperson of the Annual General Meeting intends to vote all available proxies in favour of the appointment of PwC as auditor of the Company.

Resolution 3

Adoption of Remuneration Report

The Remuneration Report for the year ended 30 June 2025 is contained within the Directors Report of the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2025.

Pursuant to section 250R(2) of the Corporations Act, a resolution that the Remuneration Report be adopted will be put to the vote at the Company's Annual General Meeting. The vote on the proposed resolution is advisory only and does not bind the directors or the Company. Shareholders should note that, as a result of amendments to the Corporations Act, the result of the vote on Resolution 3 may affect how next year's Annual General Meeting is run.

The Chair of the Annual General Meeting will allow a reasonable opportunity for members to ask questions about, or make comments on, the Remuneration Report.

The Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the Remuneration Report.
