Chrysos Corporation appoints experienced executive Elisha Civil as Non-Executive Director

Chrysos Corporation Ltd (ASX:C79) (“Chrysos” or the “Company”) today announces the appointment of accomplished finance executive Ms Elisha Civil as an independent Non-Executive Director of the Chrysos Board, effective 15 October 2025.

With more than 20 years of financial, strategic, and governance experience across the mining, energy and infrastructure sectors, Ms Civil brings deep expertise in financial governance, risk management, capital markets, and business transformation. Her appointment further strengthens the Chrysos Board’s diversity and breadth of leadership as the Company continues its global expansion and delivery of its PhotonAssay™ technology.

Rob Adamson, Chair of Chrysos Corporation Ltd, said Ms Civil’s appointment reflects the Company’s commitment to governance excellence, financial discipline and diversity of perspective at Board level.

“We are delighted to welcome Elisha to the Chrysos Board,” Mr Adamson said. “She is a highly accomplished finance executive with a deep understanding of the resources and energy sectors. Her broad experience across corporate finance, capital markets, and strategic transformation will be invaluable as Chrysos continues its growth in Australia and abroad.”

About Elisha Civil

Ms Civil is a highly accomplished finance executive with more than 20 years’ experience across the mining, energy and infrastructure sectors. She has held senior leadership roles with both ASX-listed and government-owned entities, earning a strong reputation for her expertise in financial governance, risk management, capital markets and strategic transformation. Ms Civil’s career reflects a consistent focus on delivering robust financial outcomes, enhancing governance frameworks and driving sustainable growth.

She is currently Chief Financial Officer of SEC Victoria, where she leads financial strategy and governance for one of the state’s major renewable energy investment programs. Previously, Ms Civil was Chief Financial Officer of Technology Metals Australia (ASX:TMT), where she successfully guided the company through its merger with Australian Vanadium (ASX:AVL). Earlier in her career, she held senior finance roles with Fortescue Metals Group (ASX:FMG), Galaxy Resources (ASX:GXY) and Regis Resources (ASX:RRL), contributing to major growth initiatives and business transformations across the mining sector.

Ms Civil holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Murdoch University), a Master of Business Administration (University of Western Australia), a Graduate Diploma of Applied Corporate Governance and is a Chartered Accountant (CA).
