Pepper Money and KKR Consortium Agree to Acquire RAMS Home Loan Portfolio from Westpac

Pepper Money Limited (ASX: PPM) today announces that a consortium with members including Pepper Money and KKR (the “Consortium”) has agreed to acquire the RAMS home loan portfolio (the “Portfolio”) from Westpac Banking Corporation. The portfolio comprises approximately $21.4 billion in residential mortgages as at 30 September 2025.

Pepper Money has signed a binding Asset Sale Agreement (“ASA”) to acquire the legal title to the loans and will be appointed as servicer of the Portfolio, leveraging its deep operational expertise in mortgage servicing and customer engagement. Pepper Money will also hold a small, non-material, investment in the securitisation financing vehicle, which will acquire the beneficial interest in the loan Portfolio, alongside other members of the Consortium.

The transaction aligns with Pepper Money’s strategy to grow its capital-light servicing business, which provides annuity-style earnings, operational scale and diversification benefits.

Completion of the transaction is subject to satisfaction of customary conditions precedent, including Foreign Investment Review Board approval and clearance from the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission.

Subject to satisfaction of the conditions precedent, completion of the transaction is targeted for the third quarter of 2026.

KKR is making its investment in the Portfolio from managed credit funds and accounts as part of the firm's Asset-Based Finance strategy.
