Request for Voluntary Suspension: Alliance Aviation Services Ltd (ASX: AQZ)

Alliance Aviation Services Ltd (Alliance, ASX: AQZ) requests a voluntary suspension of its securities immediately.

In accordance with Listing Rule 17.2, Alliance provides the following information in relation to the request for voluntary suspension:

- a) The voluntary suspension is necessary to assist Alliance in managing its continuous disclosure obligations as Alliance expects to make an announcement to the market in relation to a trading update, which will likely result in Alliance's FY26 earnings being materially lower than analyst consensus estimates of Alliance's FY26 earnings. This is a result of recent repairs and maintenance costs and depreciation charges being higher than anticipated. Alliance requires this period of voluntary suspension so that Alliance can prepare, validate and verify the impact of these increased expenses on its ongoing financial performance, before it releases its trading update to the market.
- b) Alliance requests that the voluntary suspension remain in place until the earlier of:
 - i. Alliance making an announcement to the market regarding the trading update; and
 - ii. the commencement of trading on Friday, 7 November 2025.
- c) Alliance is not aware of any reason why the voluntary suspension should not be granted or of any other information necessary to inform the market about the voluntary suspension.

Yours faithfully,

Nicola Clark
