Letter from Mr Ainsworth

4 December 2025

Dear fellow AGI Shareholders

Proportional takeover bid for AGI

This is an all-cash offer (Offer) to acquire 2.9% of Your Shares in Ainsworth Game Technology Limited ACN 068 516 665 (AGI) for $1.30 per Share (Offer Price). The Offer is unconditional.

The Offer delivers an attractive premium relative to historical trading prices in Shares, certainty in value in the form of cash consideration and an additional source of liquidity for Shareholders, without the need to incur brokerage costs that would otherwise be payable for any on-market sale. By accepting the Offer, you will be paid cash at a significant premium for a portion of your investment in AGI.

The full terms and conditions of the Offer are set out in section 9 of this Bidder’s Statement.

Offer to AGI Shareholders

The Offer Price represents:

- a 28.7% premium to AGI’s closing price on 21 October 2025, the trading day prior to the date of announcement of the Offer;
- a 24.1% premium to the volume weighted average price of Shares over the 30 trading days ending on 21 October 2025; and
- a 30% premium to AGI’s closing price on the Last Practicable Date.

Additionally, the Offer Price represents a 30% premium to the $1 per Share offered by Novomatic as part of its off-market takeover bid that was announced on 20 August 2025 (Novomatic Takeover Bid).

It is my belief that AGI is currently significantly undervalued, and that it represents an excellent investment opportunity in an industry that continues to grow globally. The company’s asset backing suggests an offer price of $1.30 is fairer and more reasonable than offers that are currently available on- and off-market.

While a proportional takeover bid is not required in the current circumstances, my intention is to make the Offer price available to all shareholders, while ensuring my holding in AGI remains below 10% to avoid regulatory complications under AGI’s licences.

Noting that Novomatic currently owns 61.8% of Shares on issue and the offer price under the Novomatic Takeover Bid is stated to be final and will not increase, I believe that the likelihood of an alternative superior proposal or a competing proposal emerging for AGI is low.

Bidder’s Statement

This Bidder’s Statement contains detailed information relevant to the Offer, including how to accept the Offer.

Next Steps

Please read this Bidder’s Statement carefully and in full, and accept the Offer if you wish to do so. Reasons for accepting are outlined in this Bidder’s Statement, but this is a personal decision for each shareholder.

The Offer is open for acceptance until 7:00 PM (Sydney time) on [●] January 2026, unless extended or withdrawn. If you wish to accept the Offer, please follow the instructions in this Bidder’s Statement and the accompanying Acceptance Form.

If you have any questions about the Offer, please call the Offer Information Line on 1300 126 515 (for calls made within Australia) or +61 2 8072 1451 (for calls made outside Australia) or contact your legal, financial or other professional adviser.

Yours sincerely

Kjerulf Ainsworth

Reasons to accept the Offer

1 The Offer Price delivers a substantial premium to the undisturbed historic trading price of Shares

The Offer Price represents:

- (a) a 28.7% premium to AGI’s closing price on 21 October 2025 (the trading day prior to the date of announcement of the Offer),
- (b) a 24.1% premium to the volume weighted average price of Shares over the 30 trading days ending on 21 October 2025;
- (c) a 30% premium to the $1 per Share offered as part of the Novomatic Takeover Bid; and
- (d) a 30% premium to AGI’s closing price on the Last Practicable Date.

2 The Offer provides cash certainty for a proportion of Your Shares

The Offer is 100% cash and unconditional. The Offer provides an opportunity to realise certain and attractive value for 2.9% of Your Shares in AGI.

If you accept the Offer in accordance with the instructions contained in this Bidder’s Statement and the Acceptance Form, you will be paid $1.30 cash per Share sold. Payment will be made on or before the earlier of:

- one month after this Offer is accepted; and
- 21 days after the end of the Offer Period.

Full details of when payments will be made are set out in section 9.7 of this Bidder’s Statement.

3 The Offer allows you to continue to participate in AGI’s performance

In addition to realising cash value at a significant premium for 2.9% of Your Shares, the Offer allows you to maintain an interest in AGI’s business through the remainder of your shareholding in AGI.

4 The likelihood of an alternative or competing proposal emerging is low

Given Novomatic owns 61.8% of Shares on issue and the offer price under the Novomatic Takeover Bid is stated to be final and will not increase, Mr Ainsworth believes that the likelihood of an alternative proposal or a competing proposal emerging for AGI is low.

5 No stamp duty or brokerage fees in accepting the Offer

You will not be obliged to pay stamp duty if you accept the Offer. If Your Shares are registered in an Issuer Sponsored Holding in your name and you deliver them directly to Mr Ainsworth, you will not incur any brokerage fees or be obliged to pay stamp duty in connection with your acceptance of the Offer.

If Your Shares are registered in a CHESS Holding, or if you are a beneficial owner whose Shares are registered in the name of a broker, bank, custodian or other nominee, you will not be obliged to pay stamp duty by accepting the Offer, but you should ask your Controlling Participant (usually your broker) or that nominee whether it will charge any transactional fees or service charges in connection with acceptance of the Offer.

01 Summary of the Offer

What Mr Ainsworth is offering to buy

Mr Ainsworth is offering to buy 2.9% of all Shares that he does not own (but no more or less) on the terms set out in this Bidder’s Statement.

Accordingly, if you accept the Offer, you will be paid $1.30 per Share, for 2.9% of Your Shares (rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares) and retain the remainder of Your Shares.

For example, if you own 10,000 Shares and accept the Offer, you will be paid $377 in cash and continue to own 9,710 Shares. You may only accept the Offer for 2.9% of Your Shares, and not a greater or lesser proportion.

However, if by accepting the Offer you will be left holding less than a Marketable Parcel determined on the day of your acceptance, then Mr Ainsworth will buy all of Your Shares for $1.30 cash each. In other words, in these limited circumstances the Offer will extend to ALL of Your Shares.

For example, if you own 300 Shares and accept the Offer, you will be paid $390 in cash for all of Your Shares.

This rule regarding the Offer applying to all of Your Shares will not apply to a parcel of Shares, whether held beneficially or otherwise, that has come into existence, or increased in size because of a transaction entered into (including the creation of one or more trusts), at any time after 10:00 AM on the Announcement Date.

Subject to the provisions of a notice complying with the requirements in 9.5(b), this also applies in relation to persons who hold Shares as nominee or trustee for others (see section 9.5(b) of this Bidder’s Statement for further details).

The Acceptance Form includes details of the number of Shares you can accept into the Offer based on your holding at the Register Date.

Who is the bidder?

Mr Kjerulf Ainsworth is an investor and Australian citizen. He has been an AGI Shareholder since 4 December 2021.

Further information about Mr Ainsworth is set out in section 2.

What interest does Mr Ainsworth currently have in AGI?

As at the date of this Bidder’s Statement, Mr Ainsworth has a relevant interest in AGI of 24,499,578 shares, or 7.27% of the total issued share capital in AGI.

When you will be paid

Generally, Mr Ainsworth will pay the consideration due to you under the Offer on or before the earlier of:

- one month after this Offer is accepted; and
- 21 days after the end of the Offer Period.

Full details of when payments will be made are set out in section 9.7 of this Bidder’s Statement.

Will you need to pay brokerage or stamp duty on acceptances

If Your Shares are registered in an Issuer Sponsored Holding in your name and you deliver them directly to Mr Ainsworth, you will not incur any brokerage fees or be obliged to pay stamp duty in connection with your acceptance of the Offer.

If Your Shares are registered in a CHESS Holding, or if you are a beneficial owner whose Shares are registered in the name of a broker, bank, custodian or other nominee, you will not be obliged to pay stamp duty by accepting the Offer, but you should ask your Controlling Participant (usually your broker) or that nominee whether it will charge any transactional fees or service charges in connection with acceptance of the Offer.

Close of the Offer

The Offer closes at 7:00 PM (Sydney time) on [●] 2026, unless it is extended under the Corporations Act.

Are there any conditions to the Offer?

CHESS shareholders - Acceptance Form

To accept the Offer using a physical Acceptance Form you must complete and sign the Acceptance Form enclosed with this Bidder’s Statement and return it to the address given on the form in sufficient time for it to be processed before the Offer closes; or

Contact your Controlling Participant: Alternatively, you can accept the Offer by instructing your Controlling Participant (normally your broker) to accept the Offer on your behalf, before the Offer closes.

Participants

If you are a Participant, acceptance of this Offer must be initiated in accordance with rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules before the Offer closes.

Full details on how to accept the Offer are set out in section 9.3 of this Bidder’s Statement.

Can you accept the Offer for less than 2.9% of your holdings

No. You can only accept the Offer for 2.9% of Your Shares, rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares. If you accept the Offer, you will retain 97.1% of Your Shares (unless accepting the Offer would leave you holding less than a Marketable Parcel, in which case the Offer extends to all Your Shares).

Can you accept the Offer and sell the remainder of your holdings on-market

If you accept the Offer, you will retain 97.1% of Your Shares.
You may sell your remaining holdings of Shares on-market, however the purchaser of these shares will not be able to accept the Offer for any shares you sell on-market as these will be Deferred Settlement Ex-Offer (ASX Guidance Note 18: Market Codes and Trading Procedures). You will need to discuss the trade and deferred settlement nature of an Ex-Offer market with your stockbroker as it does not settle or function on the same terms as a ‘normal’ T+2 settlement market. Your broker may not automatically establish access to an Ex-Offer market on their online portal.
If you do not accept the Offer and sell your holdings of Shares outside the Ex-Offer market, then the purchaser of the Shares who becomes registered before the close of the Offer will have the right to accept the Offer. In this circumstance, Your Shares will trade on a Cum-Offer basis under the normal ASX settlement process.

What if you are a non-resident shareholder

Foreign shareholders will be paid the same cash consideration as stipulated under the Offer. However, the tax implications under the Offer for those foreign shareholders may be different from those relating to Australian resident shareholders. You will be paid in Australian dollars by cheque drawn by an Australian bank branch.

What happens if you do not accept the Offer

You will remain an AGI Shareholder and will not receive the cash consideration under the Offer.

What are the tax implications of accepting the Offer?	A general description of the Australian taxation treatment for certain AGI Shareholders accepting the Offer is set out in section 7. The description in section 7 is a general description only and not advice. It does not take into account your particular circumstances or needs. You should not rely on that description as advice for your own affairs. You should consult your taxation adviser for detailed taxation advice before making a decision as whether or not to accept the Offer for Your Shares.

It is noted for completeness that, as stated in the AGI Second Supplementary Target Statement, there are four other holdings in AGI’s top 20 shareholders linked to other members of the Ainsworth family. These are:

- AKHA Holdings Pty Ltd <AKH Ainsworth Family A/C> is a company of which the sole director and shareholder is Alexi Kjerulf Hastings Ainsworth;
- Votrant No 1019 Pty Limited <MCA Private Investment A/C> is a company of which the sole director and shareholder is Margarete Charlotte Ainsworth;
- Mr Daniel James Creevey <Est Christian Ainsworth A/C> is the executor of the estate of Mr Christian John Hastings Ainsworth (deceased) (CJHA) (CJHA is also separately registered as a shareholder in Ainsworth); and
- CJHA Pty Limited <The CJHA Investment A/C> is a company of which the sole director and legal shareholder is Daniel James Creevey acting as the executor of the estate of CJHA (beneficial owner).

These four shareholders and Mr Ainsworth collectively hold approximately 19.96% of the Shares on issue.

4.3 Dealings in Shares

(a) Previous 4 months

During the past 4 months, Mr Ainsworth has bought a total of 7,699,578 shares on market at prices between $1.005 and $1.08 per share. Details of all those purchases are set out in his substantial holder notices. Copies of these substantial holder notices are contained in Attachment 2.

Except as described above, neither Mr Ainsworth nor any associate of Mr Ainsworth has provided, or agreed to provide, consideration for Shares under any purchase or agreement during the 4 months before the date of this Bidder’s Statement.

(b) Period before Offer

[Neither Mr Ainsworth nor any associate of Mr Ainsworth has provided, or agreed to provide, consideration for Shares under any purchase or agreement during the period starting on the date of this Bidder’s statement and end on the date immediately before the date of the Offer.]

4.4 No Pre-offer benefits

During the period of 4 months before the date of this Bidder’s Statement, neither Mr Ainsworth nor any associate of Mr Ainsworth gave, or offered to give, or agreed to give a benefit to another person which was likely to induce the other person, or an associate of the other person, to:

- accept the Offer; or
- dispose of Shares,

and which is not offered to all holders of Shares under the Offer.

[During the period from the date of this Bidder’s Statement to the date before the date of the Offer, neither Mr Ainsworth nor any associate of Mr Ainsworth gave, or offered to give, or agreed to give a benefit to another person which was likely to induce the other person, or an associate of the other person, to:

- accept the Offer; or
- dispose of Shares,

and which is not offered to all holders of Shares under the Offer.]

4.5 No escalation agreements

Neither Mr Ainsworth nor any associate of Mr Ainsworth has entered into any escalation agreement that is prohibited by section 622 of the Corporations Act.

5.1 Total cash consideration

The consideration for the acquisition of the Shares to which the Offer relates will be satisfied wholly in cash.

The maximum amount of cash that Mr Ainsworth would be required to pay under the Offer if acceptances are received in respect of Shares on issue as at the date of this Bidder’s Statement (other than those Shares in which Mr Ainsworth or Novomatic has a relevant interest) would be $4,001,423.40, together with transaction costs.¹

5.2 Sources of cash consideration

The cash consideration payable under the Offer will be provided from funds available to Mr Ainsworth including funds in a term deposit account (discussed below) and other sources.

As at the date of this Bidder’s Statement, Mr Ainsworth has access to funds significantly exceeding $4,001,423.40. These funds include funds currently held in a term deposit account with Commonwealth Bank of Australia in an amount exceeding $4,001,423.40.

The funds in the term deposit account may be withdrawn from 3 January 2026. Funds sufficient to pay the cash consideration under the Offer will be transferred to Mr Ainsworth’s at-call bank account with Westpac Banking Corporation to ensure the Mr Ainsworth will have funds immediately available for payment of the acceptances under the Offer before the earliest date payment could become due.

06 Bidder’s intentions in relation to AGI

At the date of this Bidder’s Statement, Mr Ainsworth has a relevant interest in 7.27% of Shares. Following completion of the Offer, Mr Ainsworth will hold up to a maximum of 8.19% of Shares (noting that AGI has announced that Novomatic has indicated that it does not intend to accept the Offer).

If the Offer is successful, Mr Ainsworth’s ability to materially influence AGI’s strategic direction is not expected to increase significantly. With that said, Mr Ainsworth remains committed to using his influence to advocate for changes that he considers to be in the best interests of minority shareholders.

These include (but are not limited to):

- opposing any vote to delist AGI from the ASX;
- pushing for recommencement of payment of dividends;
- advocating for the appointment of directors and senior management of AGI that he considers better suited to oversee AGI’s operations and growth; and
- if any vacancies on the Ainsworth Board arise, Mr Ainsworth would be willing to agree to become a member of the Ainsworth Board for a fixed period of twelve months to assist in AGI’s operations.

¹ This amount has been calculated on the assumption that Novomatic does not accept the Offer. On 23 October 2025, AGI announced that Novomatic had expressed an intention not to accept the Offer. Accordingly, the maximum number of Shares which can be acquired as a result of the Offer is 3,078,018 (which excludes the Shares held by Mr Ainsworth and Novomatic as at the date of this Bidder’s Statement).

Depending on acceptance levels, market conditions and ongoing assessment of AGI's strategic direction, Mr Ainsworth may consider making further proportional takeover offers in the future. Mr Ainsworth has not made any decisions in this regard, and there is no certainty that any further offer will be made.

07 Tax considerations

7.1 Introduction

The following is a general description of the Australian income tax, GST and stamp duty consequences for AGI Shareholders who accept the Offer. The Australian taxation consequences for AGI Shareholders will differ depending on their individual circumstances and AGI Shareholders should seek independent tax advice.

This tax summary is based on the provisions of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth), Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth) (ITAA 1997) and the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth) and other applicable Australian tax laws and administrative practice in effect at the date of this Bidder's Statement.

This tax summary is not applicable to all AGI Shareholders. In particular, it is relevant only to AGI Shareholders who are individuals, companies (other than life insurance companies), trusts and complying superannuation funds that hold their AGI Shares on capital account for Australian tax purposes.

This summary is not applicable to AGI Shareholders who:

- (a) hold their Shares on revenue account (such as share trading entities or entities who acquired Shares for the purposes of speculation or resale at a profit) or as trading stock;
- (b) hold their Shares under an employee share scheme offered by AGI where those Shares remain subject to deferred taxation under Division 83A of the ITAA 1997;
- (c) may be subject to special rules, such as partnerships, tax exempt organisations, entities subject to the investment manager regime under subdivision 842-I of the ITAA 1997 in relation to their Shares, insurance companies, dealers in securities or AGI Shareholders who change their tax residency while holding their Shares;
- (d) have a functional currency for Australian tax purposes other than an Australian functional currency; or
- (e) are subject to taxation of financial arrangements rules in Division 230 of the ITAA 1997 in relation to gains and losses on their Shares.

AGI Shareholders who are tax residents of a country other than Australia (whether or not they are also residents, or are temporary residents, of Australia for tax purposes) should also take into account the tax consequences under the laws of their country of residence, as well as under Australian law, of acceptance of the Offer.

7.2 Australian resident shareholders

(a) Shareholders who accept the Offer

Acceptance of the Offer will involve the disposal by AGI Shareholders of the relevant Shares by way of transfer to Mr Ainsworth.

The disposal will cause a change in the ownership of the Shares and will trigger a CGT event A1 for Australian CGT purposes.

The date of the CGT event should be the date the contract to dispose of the Shares is entered into.

(b) Calculation of capital gain or capital loss

AGI Shareholders may make a capital gain or capital loss on the transfer of Shares. AGI Shareholders will make a capital gain to the extent that the capital proceeds from the disposal of the Shares are more than the cost base (or in some cases indexed cost base) of those Shares. Conversely, AGI Shareholders will make a capital loss to the extent that the capital proceeds are less than their reduced cost base of those Shares.

Broadly, capital gains and capital losses of a taxpayer in a year of income are aggregated to determine whether there is a net capital gain. Any net capital gain is included in assessable income and is subject to income tax. Capital losses may not be deducted against other income for income tax purposes, but may be carried forward to offset against future capital gains.

(c) Capital proceeds

The capital proceeds of a CGT event will include the money received, or entitled to be received, in respect of the event happening. Accordingly, the capital proceeds should include the Offer Price of $1.30 per Share received by AGI Shareholders who accept the Offer.

(d) Cost base and reduced cost base

The cost base of the Shares will generally include the cost of acquisition of the Shares. Certain other incidental amounts related to the acquisition, holding and disposal of the Shares may also be added to the cost base.

The reduced cost base is usually determined in a similar although not identical manner. Any capital loss will be calculated on the basis of the difference between the capital proceeds and the reduced cost base of the Shares.

However, if the Shares were acquired at or before 11:45 AM on 21 September 1999, an AGI Shareholder who is an individual, a complying superannuation entity or the trustee of a trust may choose to adjust the cost base of the Shares to include indexation by reference to changes in the consumer price index from the calendar quarter in which the Shares were acquired until the quarter ended 30 September 1999. AGI Shareholders that are companies will generally be entitled to include that indexation adjustment without making an election. These indexation adjustments are taken into account only for the purposes of calculating capital gain, they are ignored when calculating the amount of any capital loss. Whether it is advantageous for an individual AGI Shareholder to make the indexation election will depend on their particular circumstances, for example the cost base of the Shares and whether the AGI Shareholder has available tax losses. AGI Shareholders should seek independent tax advice on this question.

Conversely, if a Share was acquired after 11:45 AM on 21 September 1999, the capital gain or loss is generally calculated on the difference between the capital proceeds and the cost base for the Share, without indexation.

(e) CGT discount

Individuals, complying superannuation entities or trustees that have held Shares for at least 12 months but do not index the cost base of the Shares (as described above) may be entitled to discount the amount of the capital gain (after application of capital losses) from the disposal of Shares by:

- 50% in the case of individuals and trusts (subject to the comment below); or
- 33% for complying superannuation entities.

For trusts, the ultimate availability of the discount may depend on a beneficiary's entitlement to the discount which may be a complex question, and therefore, such Shareholders should obtain specific advice in this regard, including in relation to the tax consequences of distributions attributable to discounted capital gains.

The CGT discount is not available to companies or to Shareholders who have owned (or are deemed to have owned) Shares for less than the required 12-month period.

AGI Shareholders should seek independent tax advice in relation to the operation of these rules.

7.3 Non resident shareholders

This section 7.3 applies to AGI Shareholders that are not Australian residents for tax purposes (Non-Resident AGI Shareholders).

Non-Resident AGI Shareholders should generally not make a capital gain on the disposal of Shares under the Offer unless the Shares are 'taxable Australian property'.

Broadly, the Shares held by Non-Resident AGI Shareholders should only be taxable Australian property where:

- (a) the Shares are an 'indirect Australian real property interest' (see below);
- (b) the Shares were used at any time by the Non-Resident AGI Shareholder in carrying on a business at or through a permanent establishment in Australia; or
- (c) the Non-Resident AGI Shareholder was previously an Australian tax resident and chose to disregard a capital gain or loss in respect of their Shares from a CGT event I1 on ceasing to be an Australian tax resident.

(a) Indirect real property interests

Broadly, Shares will only be indirect Australian real property interests where the following conditions are satisfied:

- (1) the Non-Resident AGI Shareholder and their associates (as defined for tax purposes) together have held at least 10% or more of the issued Shares in AGI at the time of disposal of the Shares (for CGT purposes), or for a period of at least 12 months during the 24 months before the time of disposal (for CGT purposes); and
- (2) the aggregate market value of AGI's assets which are taxable Australian property (being direct and indirect interests in real property, including leases of land, situated in Australia and mining, quarrying or prospecting rights in respect of materials situated in Australia) exceeds the aggregate market value of AGI's assets which are not taxable Australian property.

Foreign resident shareholders should obtain independent advice as to the tax implications of the Offer, including tax implications in their country of residence.

Non-Resident AGI Shareholders should be aware that these rules (and the related non-resident CGT withholding rules, discussed below) are subject to proposed changes which may affect their obligations under Australian taxation laws. The changes are intended to apply from the later of the first 1 January, 1 April, 1 July or 1 October after the amending statute receives Royal Assent.

For any disposals occurring once the changes are in effect, Non-Resident AGI Shareholders should seek independent tax advice in relation to the application of the rules in their individual circumstances.

7.4 Non-Resident CGT withholding tax

Broadly, under the 'foreign resident CGT withholding tax' regime, purchasers of shares in certain companies may be required to pay an amount equal to 15% of the purchase price for each share to the ATO.

Mr Ainsworth may be required to withhold under the regime if the Shares qualify as indirect Australian real property interests (see section 7.3 above) and Mr Ainsworth:

- (a) knows or reasonably believes that the AGI Shareholder is a Non-Resident AGI Shareholder; or
- (b) does not reasonably believe that the AGI Shareholder is an Australian resident, and either:
 - (1) the relevant AGI Shareholder has an address outside Australia; or
 - (2) Mr Ainsworth is authorised to make payment of the Offer consideration to a place outside Australia (whether to the AGI Shareholder or to anyone else).

An AGI Shareholder may complete a 'Foreign Resident Capital Gains Withholding Declaration – Vendor' form (Vendor Declaration) to declare that it is an Australian resident or that the Shares are not indirect Australian real property interests. The form can be downloaded from the ATO website. Mr Ainsworth will not be required to withhold 15% of the Offer price if the AGI Shareholder provides a valid Vendor Declaration to Mr Ainsworth by the relevant time and Mr Ainsworth does not know or reasonably believe the Declaration to be false.

If the AGI Shareholder does not provide an appropriately completed Vendor Declaration by the relevant time or if Mr Ainsworth reasonably believes that the information in the Vendor Declaration is false, and if Mr Ainsworth otherwise reasonably believes that there is, or is reasonably likely to be, a liability to withhold and pay an amount to the ATO in respect of the disposal of the Shares by an AGI Shareholder, Mr Ainsworth may withhold the CGT withholding tax from the Offer price payable to the AGI Shareholder. In this case, the AGI Shareholder will receive the net proceeds after deduction of this withheld amount and the AGI Shareholder will be taken to receive the full Offer price for the purposes of the Offer.

Mr Ainsworth may also seek to engage with the ATO about a process for identifying AGI Shareholders who may be covered by the regime.

Any CGT withholding tax withheld may be able to be offset against the actual tax payable on the gain from the disposal of the Shares and may be refundable by the ATO in certain circumstances to the extent that the CGT withholding tax exceeds the actual tax payable.

7.5 Goods and services tax

AGI Shareholders should not be liable for GST in respect of a disposal of Shares under the Offer.

AGI Shareholders may be charged GST on costs (such as advisor fees) that relate to their participation in the Offer. AGI Shareholders may be entitled to input tax credits or reduced input tax credits for such costs, but should seek independent advice in relation to their individual circumstances.

7.6 Stamp duty

AGI Shareholders will not be liable for any stamp duty on the disposal of Shares in return for cash under the Offer. Any stamp duty payable on the disposal of Shares under the Offer will be paid by Mr Ainsworth.

8.1 ASIC modifications

Mr Ainsworth has relied on ASIC modifications of section 618 of the Corporations Act as set out in ASIC Corporations (Takeover Bids) Instrument 2023/683. The effect of the modifications is reflected in the terms of the Offer set out in section 9 of this Bidder’s Statement.

Also, ASIC has published various regulatory instruments providing for modifications and exemptions that generally apply to all persons including Mr Ainsworth, in relation to the operation of Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act.

8.2 Date for determining holders of Shares

For the purposes of section 633 of the Corporations Act, the date for determining the people to whom information is to be sent under items 6 and 12 of subsection 633(1) is the Register Date.

8.3 Consents

8.4 Social security and superannuation implications of Offer

Acceptance of the Offer may have implication under your superannuation arrangements or on your social security entitlements. If in any doubt, you should seek specialist advice.

8.5 Property valuations have been understated

(a) Introduction

Mr Ainsworth believes AGI has understated the value of its real property in its published financial statements, negatively impacting AGI’s apparent overall valuation. In the context of the Novomatic Takeover Bid, this understatement is particularly concerning as it is relevant to the fairness of Novomatic’s offer. Further details of these valuation concerns are detailed in this section 8.5.

(b) Property valuations

AGI holds two significant property assets, the Nevada Property and the Florida Property.

AGI reported the carrying value of its land and building was $42.512 million as at 30 June 2025² and $45.466 million as at 31 December 2024³.

The 2024 AGI Annual Report identified that the Nevada Property had a net book value of US$28.266 million⁴ and was secured against a loan facility with Western Alliance Bancorporation for US$50 million⁵. This value is consistent with the US$28.3 million carrying value set out in the Lonergan Edwards Report and appears to represent the full carrying value of AGI’s land and building assets in the 2024 AGI Annual Report. It appears that no value is attributed to the Florida Property (although real property assets owned by AGI in Florida are referred to in the Lonergan Edwards Report).

In mid 2025, Mr Ainsworth commissioned independent valuations of the Nevada Property by Sierra Valuation (formerly Valbridge Property Advisors | Las Vegas | Reno) and the Florida Property by Valbridge Property Advisors Southwest Florida | Miami-Ft. Lauderdale, which have both been made publicly available by Mr Ainsworth at AGIfightback.com⁶:

- Nevada Property Report: (<https://static1.squarespace.com/static/689001d5fa8e4d0173d072b9/t/68959a19e5e7b22647e63443/1754634777197/Valuation+Las+Vegas.pdf>)
- Florida Property Report: (<https://static1.squarespace.com/static/689001d5fa8e4d0173d072b9/t/68959955480e8d749a56a26c/1754634581964/Valuation+Florida.pdf>).

The Nevada Property Report identifies:

- a value of US$48.78 million as appraised by the Clark County Tax Assessor in 2025;
- a market value of US$71.19 million on a Sales Comparison Approach Value Indication;
- a market value of US$70.55 million on an Income Capitalization Approach Value Indication; and
- a market value of US$71 million reconciling the above Sales Comparison and Income Capitalization approaches.

² Note 10 in the 2025 AGI Interim Financial Report.
³ Note 13 to the Financial Statements in the 2024 AGI Annual Report.
⁴ Note 13 to the Financial Statements in the 2024 AGI Annual Report.
⁵ Note 13 of the 2025 Interim Financial Report confirms that this loan facility has been increased from US$50 million to US$75 million.
⁶ The valuations for the Nevada Property and Florida Property were curb side valuations and did not involve internal inspections.

The Florida Property Report identifies:

- a value of US$2.90 million as appraised by the Clark County Tax Assessor in 2025;
- a market value of US$5.3 million on a Sales Comparison Approach Value Indication;
- a market value of US$4.85 to US$5.05 million on an Income Capitalization Approach Value Indication; and
- a market value of US$5.15 million reconciling the above Sales Comparison and Income Capitalization approaches.

Based on these valuations, Mr Ainsworth believes that the value of AGI's real property has been materially understated in the 2025 AGI Interim Financial Report and the Lonergan Edwards Report. Mr Ainsworth has sought information from AGI in relation to valuations of both the Nevada Property and the Florida Property that support a higher valuation.

While it is common to value an operating business such as AGI on an EBITDA multiple basis (as applied by Lonergan Edwards in the Lonergan Edwards Report), independent experts typically also consider other valuation approaches, including net assets or break-up value, particularly where these methods indicate a higher valuation. Notably, Lonergan Edwards acknowledged in its report that AGI's real property assets in Las Vegas and Florida (which we take to be a reference to the Nevada Property and Florida Property) are relatively material in the context of AGI's overall value (although the Lonergan Edwards Report also states that it considers the valuation approach it has adopted is appropriate in AGI's circumstances).

If the market value of the Nevada Property (as set out in the Nevada Property Report) and the Florida Property (as set out in the Florida Property Report) had been reflected in AGI's balance sheet, AGI's consolidated net assets as at 30 June 2025 would increase to $430.6 million⁷ (rather than $356 million⁸). This figure is significantly higher than the upper end of Lonergan Edwards' equity value range of $311.8 million to $361.8 million and exceeds the consideration offered under the Takeover Bid (which equates to $336.8 million).

8.6 Requests for information from AGI have not been met

Mr Ainsworth is seeking access to certain documents and information from AGI. As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, these requests for information have largely not been met.

The documents and information that are being sought concern a number of matters, including:

- (a) the valuation of AGI's Nevada Property and Florida Property, and the impact of those valuations on AGI's reported net asset backing and overall value;
- (b) the rationale behind AGI's decision not to declare dividends since 2018, and the basis for agreeing to the permitted dividend under the Novomatic Scheme of Arrangement; and
- (c) the allocation of funds and resources in a way that appears to confer a financial benefit or other advantage on Novomatic, including:
 - (1) various related party transactions with Novomatic which appear to give rise to a net outflow of funds to Novomatic (despite AGI sharing research and development facilities in its Nevada Property with Novomatic's subsidiary, Greentube); and
 - (2) AGI issuing cash settled performance rights to 12 executives (including Mr Neumann), some of which vest on a change of control, at a time when it may have been negotiating the Scheme Implementation Deed with Novomatic.

8.7 Concerns regarding AGI IBC recommendation of the Novomatic Takeover Bid

Mr Ainsworth is also concerned about the AGI IBC's unanimous recommendation that AGI Shareholders accept the Novomatic Takeover Bid, particularly given that the closing price on the last practicable date under that offer was $1.03, which is higher than the Novomatic Offer Price, and the Shares have traded above $1.00 per Share on many occasions since the Novomatic Takeover Bid and the earlier Novomatic Scheme of Arrangement, were announced.

⁷ The figure is calculated using the AUD:USD exchange rate in the Lonergan Edwards Report of 1:0.65 and applying that to the market value of the Nevada Property and the Florida Property which results in a $74.6 million delta between the market value of those properties and the reported carrying value of the land and building assets as at 30 June 2025.
⁸ Net assets as at 31 December 2024 were stated to be $360 million in the 2024 AGI Annual Report.

Although the AGI Target Statement does reference the higher closing price (including in section 6.3), this disclosure does not appear with comparable prominence to the headline recommendation. Notably, the recommendation on the first page of the Bidder's Statement is unqualified and does not acknowledge the trading price of the Shares.

Given the limited prominence of this information, and the unqualified recommendation, there is a risk that AGI shareholders may be misled into accepting the Novomatic Takeover Offer even if a higher price for their Shares could be obtained on market (subject to buying volume being available).

8.8 Licensing clarifications relating to Mr Ainsworth

Statements made by AGI

The AGI Second Supplementary Target Statement notes that Mr Ainsworth, as a shareholder with more than 5% of Shares, is required to submit personal disclosures or apply for licensure under gaming laws and regulations in a number of gaming jurisdictions. AGI goes on to note that:

- (a) gaming regulators have requested Mr Ainsworth submit personal disclosures and licensing applications in approximately 29 jurisdictions where AGI operates; and
- (b) through Mr Ainsworth's gaming counsel, AGI has been advised that:
 - (1) Mr Ainsworth has requested and received extensions to the original deadlines for these submissions by the relevant regulators; or
 - (2) no firm deadline has been set by the regulators.

Clarification about jurisdictions and categories of jurisdiction requirements

The position is more nuanced than AGI has suggested in its statement and is as follows:

- (a) based on information on AGI's website, AGI currently holds more than 275 gaming-related licences, authorities and approvals granted by various government authorities and regulators globally;
- (b) at the time that Mr Ainsworth increased his shareholding in AGI to more than 5%, he made inquiries with AGI to understand the gaming regulatory obligations that would apply to him in connection with his shareholding in AGI exceeding 5%. In response to Mr Ainsworth's inquiries, AGI provided to Mr Ainsworth a list of jurisdictions for which AGI understood that personal disclosures or licensing applications may be required to be submitted by Mr Ainsworth (as a shareholder of AGI in excess of 5%) - the list provided by AGI consisted of 29 jurisdictions, including some where a regulator had confirmed a filing was required;
- (c) in relation to the 29 jurisdictions identified by AGI, there are various categories of jurisdiction requirements, including:
 - (1) jurisdictions that have confirmed that Mr Ainsworth is not required to submit an application (as no filing obligation exists);
 - (2) jurisdictions that have confirmed that Mr Ainsworth is required to submit an application, but have not imposed any deadline for submission;
 - (3) jurisdictions that have confirmed that Mr Ainsworth is required to submit an application, and have imposed an initial deadline for submission (with extensions having been sought as required); and
 - (4) jurisdictions for which the position (or deadlines) has not been confirmed by the relevant regulator; and
- (d) in addition, Mr Ainsworth (through regulatory representatives) has been engaging with gaming regulators in other relevant jurisdictions to confirm whether he is required to make filings in those jurisdictions in connection with owning a shareholding interest in AGI in excess of 5%. The process is ongoing and has resulted in Mr Ainsworth becoming aware of additional filing requirements in a number of jurisdictions, with which he is taking steps to comply.

Mr Ainsworth has clarified the position in respect of each of the 29 jurisdictions identified by AGI, as well as other jurisdictions, and has made filings in a number of those jurisdictions. Mr Ainsworth is taking steps to ensure that all filings are made in those jurisdictions by any deadline imposed by a gaming regulator (or a later date, as agreed).

General comment on Mr Ainsworth’s licensing record

Mr Ainsworth has maintained a clean and unconditional licensing record since his first gaming licence was issued over 30 years ago. Mr Ainsworth (through local regulatory representatives) has been engaging (and will continue to engage) with gaming regulators in relevant jurisdictions to ensure that the gaming regulatory obligations that apply to Mr Ainsworth as a shareholder of AGI are understood and complied with.

Mr Ainsworth has commenced the licensing process in relevant jurisdictions where regulatory approval is required for a shareholding in AGI of more than 5%.

Mr Ainsworth recognises that gaming licensing requirements are rigorous and time-consuming, and he takes his compliance obligations extremely seriously.

8.9 Other material information

Except as disclosed elsewhere in this Bidder’s Statement, there is no other information that is:

- (a) material to the making of a decision by an AGI Shareholder whether or not to accept the Offer; and
 - (b) known to Mr Ainsworth,
- which has not previously been disclosed to AGI Shareholders.

09 The terms and conditions of the Offer

9.1 Offer

- (a) Mr Ainsworth offers to acquire 2.9% of Your Shares (rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares) on and subject to the terms and conditions set out in section 9 of this Bidder’s Statement. You may only accept this Offer for 2.9% of Your Shares and not a greater or lesser proportion. For example, if you hold 10,000 Shares you can only accept this Offer in respect of 290 Shares.
- (b) The consideration under the Offer is $1.30 per Share.
- (c) By accepting this Offer, you undertake to transfer to Mr Ainsworth not only the Shares to which the Offer relates, but also all Rights attached to those Shares (see sections 9.6(b)(6) and 9.7(c)).
- (d) This Offer does not extend to Shares in respect of which you become registered as the holder prior to the end of the Offer Period as a result of the conversion of, or the exercise of rights attached to, other securities convertible into Shares that are on issue at the Register Date.
- (e) This Offer extends to any person who is able during the Offer Period to give good title to a parcel of Shares that are not “tagged” and has not already accepted the Offer for those Shares (see section 9.5(a)). If you accept this Offer to sell 2.9% of Your Shares, you are not entitled to accept the Offer for the remaining 97.1% of Your Shares (Remaining Shares), nor can a transferee of your Remaining Shares accept the Offer. Your Remaining Share will effectively be “tagged” as locked to prevent their acceptance into this Offer or being sold to someone else who may also accept the Offer on the Remaining Share parcel.
- (f) Despite paragraphs (a), (d) and (e) of this section 9.1, if accepting this Offer would leave you with less than a Marketable Parcel of Shares, this Offer extends to the whole of that parcel and if you accept the Offer you will be deemed to have accepted for (and will receive consideration for) 100% of Your Shares, unless you or another person acquired a legal or equitable interest in the Shares comprising the parcel after the Offer was announced to ASX on the Announcement Date. This section applies to persons who hold Shares as nominee or trustee for others, provided that the holder provides a notice complying with section 9.5(b) in relation to each parcel of Shares to which this provision is to apply.
- (g) Section 9.1(f) will not apply to a parcel of Shares, whether held beneficially or otherwise, that has come into existence, or increased in size, because of a transaction entered into (including the creation of one or more trusts), at any time after 10:00 AM on the Announcement Date.
- (h) If Your Shares are registered in the name of a broker, investment dealer, bank, trust company or other nominee you should contact that nominee for assistance in accepting the Offer.
- (i) If necessary, if the number of Your Shares to which this Offer relates is not a whole number, the Offer will be rounded down to the nearest whole number.
- (j) Offers on terms and conditions identical to those contained in this Offer have been dispatched or will be dispatched to all AGI Shareholders registered as such in the AGI share register on the Register Date.
- (k) The Offer is dated [●] .

9.2 Offer Period

- (a) Unless withdrawn, the Offer will remain open for acceptance during the period commencing on the date of this Offer and ending at 7.00 PM (Sydney time) on the later of:
 - (1) [●] 2026; or
 - (2) any date to which the Offer Period is extended.
- (b) Mr Ainsworth reserves the right, exercisable in his sole discretion, to extend the Offer Period in accordance with the Corporations Act.

- (c) If, within the last 7 days of the Offer Period, either of the following events occur:
- (1) the Offer is varied to improve the consideration offered; or
 - (2) Mr Ainsworth’s voting power in AGI increases to more than 50% (noting that this could not occur as a result of acceptances of the Offer),
- then the Offer Period will be automatically extended so that it ends 14 days after the relevant event in accordance with section 624(2) of the Corporations Act.

To accept this Offer for Your Shares held in your name in a CHESS Holding (in which case your Holder Identification Number will commence with ‘X’), you may accept this Offer online, by instructing your Controlling Participant or by using a physical Acceptance Form.

Instructing your Controlling Participant

- (1) If Your Shares are held in your name in a CHESS Holding (in which case your Holder Identification Number will commence with ‘X’) and you are not a Participant, you should instruct your Controlling Participant (for AGI Shareholders who are not institutions, this is normally the stockbroker through whom you bought Your Shares or ordinarily acquire shares on the ASX) to initiate acceptance of this Offer on your behalf in accordance with Rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules before the end of the Offer Period in sufficient time for this Offer to be accepted before the Offer Period. Neither Mr Ainsworth nor the Share Registry will be responsible if your Controlling Participant does not acknowledge and confirm your acceptance in sufficient time.

- (6) If you are a CHESS holder, Mr Ainsworth strongly recommends that you submit your online acceptance of this Offer a reasonable period before the end of the Offer Period.

This is because the Share Registry will need to confirm with your Controlling Participant any online submission of your acceptance of this Offer before it can be taken as validly submitted. There may not be sufficient time to do so for any online acceptance submitted by CHESS holders too close to the end of the Offer Period.

This is because the Share Registry will need to confirm with your Controlling Participant your proposed acceptance of this Offer via an Acceptance Form before it can be taken as validly submitted. There may not be sufficient time to do so for any online acceptances submitted by you if you accept online too close to the end of the Offer Period.

An acceptance by you of the Offer in respect of any such distinct portion of Your Shares will be ineffective unless:

- (1) you have given Mr Ainsworth notice stating that Your Shares consist of separate and distinct parcels, such notice being:

Dear Colleagues

Announcement of $1.30 per share proportional takeover bid for 2.9% of Ainsworth Game Technology Limited ABN 37 068 516 665 (AGI) (ASX:AGI)

I am pleased to advise that I intend to make an all cash proportional off-market takeover bid to acquire 2.9% of all ordinary shares of AGI that I do not currently hold for $1.30 per share¹ (the Offer).

As at the date of this announcement, I have a relevant interest in approximately 24,499,578 ordinary shares comprising 7.27% of the ordinary shares in AGI.

If all other shareholders accepted the Offer, I would hold approximately 9.9% of the ordinary shares in AGI. While a proportional takeover bid is not required in the current circumstances, I wish to make the Offer price available to all shareholders, while ensuring my holding in AGI remains below 10%, so as to avoid triggering complications under AGI's regulatory licences.

Depending on acceptance levels, market conditions and ongoing assessment of AGI's strategic direction, I may consider making further proportional takeover offers in the future. No decision has been made in this regard, and there is no certainty that any further offer will be made.

I intend to offer accepting shareholders consideration of $1.30 per share. The represents a 28.7% premium to AGI's closing price on 21 October 2025, the trading day prior to this announcement, and a 24.1% premium to the volume weighted average price of AGI shares over the 30 trading days ending on 21 October 2025. The Offer represents an opportunity for shareholders of AGI to realise cash at a significant premium for a portion of their AGI shares.

¹ Reduced by the amount per share of any dividends or other distributions determined, declared or paid on AGI ordinary shares on or after the date of this announcement.

The Offer will be unconditional

Further information about the Offer will be provided in a Bidder's Statement, which will be sent to AGI shareholders in due course and within 2 months of this announcement. The Bidder's Statement will set out information on how to accept the Offer, information for AGI shareholders on why they should accept the Offer and information about myself.

ABOUT THE OFFER

The Offer represents a 28.7% premium to AGI's closing price on 21 October 2025, the trading day prior to this announcement, and a 24.1% premium to the volume weighted average price of AGI shares over the 30 trading days ending on 21 October 2025.

The Offer will be for 2.9% of the holding of each AGI shareholder (other than myself). Shareholders will continue to participate in any future improvement in AGI's performance by retaining the balance of their holdings.

Assuming full acceptance of all offers, following close of the Offer, I will hold approximately 9.9% of the ordinary shares in AGI.

STRATEGIC RATIONALE

I believe AGI is currently significantly undervalued, and that it represents an excellent investment opportunity in an industry that continues to grow globally.

The company's asset backing suggests an offer price of $1.30 is more fair and reasonable than offers that are currently available on- and off-market.

Regulatory requirements are onerous and time consuming. They deter ownership above 10% of AGI for the moment. Hence the limitation of the offer.

The offer demonstrates my long-term interest in and commitment to the future of AGI.

If a board seat becomes available, I will agree to becoming a board member for a fixed period of twelve months to assist in sorting out the issues the company is facing.

Yours sincerely

Kjerulf Ainsworth
