Decmil Awarded $81m Brockman 4 Workshop Expansion Project

Macmahon Holdings Limited (ASX: MAH) (‘Macmahon’ or ‘Company’) is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary, Decmil, has received a notice of award from Rio Tinto (ASX: RIO) for the Mobile Equipment Maintenance (‘MEM’) Workshop Expansion project at the Brockman 4 mine located in the Pilbara region of Western Australia.

The contract is valued at $81 million and involves the construction of a new MEM workshop, office, bulk lube storage and oily water system. Works are expected to commence in early 2026 and be completed by April 2027.

Macmahon’s FY26 guidance remains unchanged.

Managing Director and CEO of Macmahon, Michael Finnegan, said:

“We are pleased to strengthen our strategic relationship with Rio Tinto and partnering with them to deliver the MEM Workshop Expansion project at the Brockman 4 mine. This award is consistent with executing our growth strategy for our civil infrastructure business to graduate to larger civil projects. This award strengthens our FY26 earnings momentum and provides a good foundation for our FY27 civil work in hand.”
