Appointment of CEO, Convenience and Mobility

Viva Energy Group Limited (Viva Energy or the Company) announced today that Teresa Rendo will join the Company in the role of Chief Executive Officer, Convenience and Mobility.

Ms Rendo is a highly respected senior retail executive with more than 25 years' experience across some of Australia's most prominent retail organisations. She has most recently served as Managing Director Apparel Brands at The Just Group, which includes more than 700 stores across multiple well-known apparel brands, employing over 5,000 people.

Prior to joining The Just Group, Ms Rendo held a range of executive leadership roles at BIG W, including Acting Managing Director, Chief Commercial Officer and General Manager Commercial, along with senior buying and merchandising positions. She also held senior leadership responsibilities within Woolworths Supermarkets, serving as Head of Perishables and General Merchandise.

Commenting on Ms Rendo's appointment, Scott Wyatt, Viva Energy Managing Director and Group CEO said:

"I am delighted to welcome Teresa to the executive leadership team of Viva Energy. Teresa is an accomplished retail leader with deep experience across trading, product sourcing and innovation as well as operational excellence in multi-brand environments. She will bring a strong retail execution focus which is essential to drive customer experience, top-line growth, and operational excellence. She is excited about building a world class convenience business and I am confident Teresa will accelerate our progress towards this goal."

Ms Rendo will relocate to Adelaide, transition to the new role, and formally assume responsibilities from Interim CEO, Jennifer Gray, from July 2026. Ms Gray will continue to support Ms Rendo through to the end of the year.

Authorised for release by: the Board of Directors of Viva Energy Group Limited.
