

AGCO Notice – PointsBet Canada

Melbourne, 13 February 2026

PointsBet Holdings Limited (ASX: PBH) (“PointsBet” or “the Company”) advises that the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (“AGCO”) has issued a Notice of Proposed Order to suspend PointsBet Canada’s iGaming registration for a period of five days.

The proposed suspension relates to a March 2024 incident in which PointsBet Canada is alleged to have failed to provide certain transactional information to the AGCO in connection with suspicious betting activity.

PointsBet has the right to appeal the proposed order to the Licence Appeal Tribunal (“LAT”)¹ within 15 days. The Company is currently reviewing the Notice of Proposed Order and considering all available options, including exercising the right to request a hearing before the LAT.

PointsBet Canada CEO, Scott Vanderwel, said:

“PointsBet Canada is disappointed by the AGCO’s proposed sanction, and believe it is disproportionate given PointsBet Canada’s collective actions and strong compliance record. PointsBet Canada’s initial response to the AGCO request for information in March 2024 was incomplete. This was unintentional. Once the error was identified we immediately disclosed the correct information, in full, to the AGCO. PointsBet Canada have cooperated fully with the AGCO throughout its review.”

PointsBet Canada continues to operate in the ordinary course while the appeal period remains open. The Company will keep the market informed in accordance with its continuous disclosure obligations.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of Directors

- Ends -

¹ LAT is an adjudicative body that is part of Tribunals Ontario and independent of the AGCO

About PointsBet

PointsBet is a corporate bookmaker listed on the Australian Stock Exchange with operations in Australia and Canada. PointsBet has developed a scalable cloud-based wagering platform through which it offers its clients innovative sports and racing wagering products and iGaming.

For further information please contact:

For investors

Alister Lui

Group Chief Financial Officer

alister.lui@pointsbet.com