17 February 2026

Xoomplay Alliance Not to Proceed

Sydney, Australia – 12 February 2026 – Jayride Group Limited (ASX: JAY) (“Jayride” or the “Company”) advises that references to Xoomplay contained in its ASX announcement dated 14 October 2025 and its Quarterly Activities Report dated 30 January 2026 related to preliminary commercial discussions regarding a potential collaboration.

Those discussions did not progress further to a final, binding commercial arrangement and resulted in no monetisation, and the parties have since ceased further discussions.

Accordingly, the Company confirms that there will be no current or future partnership or alliance with Xoomplay, and references to Xoomplay will be removed from the Company’s materials.

Jayride continues to progress its SaaS mobility strategy through executed customer contracts, including with other partners in mobile-based advertising and monetisation initiatives designed to enhance driver and fleet operator income, and will update the market as binding agreements are concluded.
