GYG Co-CEO Update

Guzman y Gomez Limited (“GYG”, “the Company”) today advises that Co-CEO Hilton Brett has advised the Board that he will require a kidney transplant later this year. In preparation for the transplant, Hilton will be required to undertake certain medical procedures.

With the Board’s full support, Hilton will continue in his role as Co-CEO of GYG. Hilton will from time to time reduce his day-to-day responsibilities to accommodate his treatment and recovery. Founder and Co-CEO Steven Marks will continue to lead the Company, with the support of the GYG Senior Leadership Team during the times Hilton is unavailable.
