Data#3 appointed as Whole of Australian Government Microsoft Licensing Solution

Provider March 30, 2026; Brisbane, Australia: Australia's leading IT services and solutions provider, Data#3 Limited (ASX:DTL), is proud to announce it has been appointed by the Digital Transformation Agency (DTA), representing the Commonwealth of Australia, to facilitate provision of Microsoft Products and provide Services to the Australian Government.

Following the recent announcement of the DTA signing a new five-year agreement with Microsoft, the DTA established a panel to provide support services to agencies looking to procure under the Microsoft Volume Sourcing Arrangement (VSA6).

Through a competitive tender process, Data#3 was selected as a panel provider, with the appointment confirmed for an initial five-year term, with an option to extend for a further one year.

As the incumbent Microsoft Licensing Solution Provider (LSP) and the 2025 Microsoft Country Partner of the Year for Australia, Data#3 represents continuity of service and an unmatched ability to scale and adapt locally.

As an Australian-owned LSP, Data#3's fully compliant offer detailed its:

- Proven capabilities to deliver the core services
- Experience-based approach to the floating seat migration
- Added value to directly improving services to the DTA and Buyers.

Data#3 CEO and Managing Director, Brad Colledge, said: "Through our longstanding partnership with the DTA, Data#3 has consistently delivered customer-focused outcomes under the LSP arrangement in a period of significant change."

"With our admission to this panel, we affirm our commitment to a business relationship that is based on mutual trust, innovative approaches and a shared drive to provide benefit to the Australian economy."

Approved for distribution by the Managing Director.
