Mr White is currently the Chief Executive Officer of a biotechnology company transitioning from research and development to commercial operations, providing him with current, hands-on experience in strategy execution, capital management and growth.

Mr White holds a Master of Public Administration from the University of Sydney, a Bachelor of Business (Accounting) from the University of New England, a Graduate Certificate in Management from Macquarie University, He also holds Diplomas in Security and Risk Management and Work Health and Safety and is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Mr Bradley McCosker, Chief Executive Officer of ABE Holdings said:

We are pleased to welcome Shane to the Board at an important stage of ABE's growth.

Shane brings a unique combination of capital markets experience, governance expertise and deep risk management capability. His background across listed financial services, advisory and regulatory environments will strengthen the Board as we continue to scale our platform and expand access to fixed income markets.

His experience in navigating complex regulatory and operational environments is particularly relevant as ABE continues to execute on its strategy to deliver transparent, efficient and accessible investment solutions to investors.”

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of Australian Bond Exchange Holdings Limited.

Yours sincerely

Ms Vicki Grey
Company Secretary
