Mali Security Update

Resolute Mining Limited (Resolute or the Company) (ASX/LSE: RSG) is aware of media reports regarding recent security incidents and unrest in Bamako and four other cities in central and northern parts of Mali.

The Company confirms that its Syama operation, located in southern Mali in the Sikasso Region, approximately 30 kilometres from the Côte d'Ivoire border, continues to operate without interruption. At this stage, there has been no impact to the safety of personnel, supply chains or production.

Resolute continues to closely monitor the situation and remains in regular contact with local authorities, security advisors and in-country teams. The safety and wellbeing of employees and contractors remain the Company's highest priority, and established security and travel protocols are in place.
